“ To the entire Tatum and extended family. Our family lost contact after the passing of Mr. Isaiah (father). Sorry to hear of Phyllis's passing. Found out yesterday and it saddened me to hear the news. Your father and my mother Mrs. Phillips were close friends. They met through my uncle Leon Jackson Sr. God bless all the Tatum siblings. I know the pain due to the lost of a sibling. Hold onto GOD'S unchanging hands. She is with her parents in God's loving arms ❤️. Sorry we lost touch with one another. Sending love, hugs and prayers.

Sincerely, Paula Phillips-Terrell

“ God seen the road was getting tough and he gently whispered in her ear and said come on home my beautiful child. She closed her eyes and peacefully answered I'm ready my Lord Jesus Christ and Savior. I love you so much sister and it's not goodbye but I'll see you later. Love your little “ Phyllis was a very nice woman who has suffered a lot but now she's with the Lord. May she rest in peace. Angel and Beverly will miss her. We used to take her some food with Pudge. Pudge has been part of our family for twelve years and is a very good person. Phyllis always called Angel his wife. Rest in peace, Phyllis.
