“ Dear Aunt Rachel,

It's been a long time since I was graced by your stunning presence. You always had a way of making a fashionable entrance. You were very genuine. If you were speaking, it was truth that was being relayed. You were strong, beautiful and empowering. You took on overwhelming responsibilities and gave everything your best. May the comfort of peace in Heaven be a wonderful experience you are enjoying while we celebrate your life and the mark you left in our hearts. You will always be remembered and thought of fondly. I love you and miss you. We'll be together again when God decides I am too good for this earth and better suited for Heaven like you.

*Love,
Prissy*
