“ So sorry for your loss. Living on 29th Street really was living as it says in the bible it takes a village to raise a child. I know it has been 3 years since my biological mom passed but, it seems like I've lost her all over again with losing Ms. Rebecca. I loved her with all my heart our street won't be the same. I loved to come home and see her and Ms. Faulk two beautiful ladies. Just know that time may have passed quickly but, memories will last forever. Praying your strength during this time of loss. She will truly be missed. Love you Connie, Joyce, Nita thank you for sharing her with us. Love Hilda

“ My auntie Becky was a light of our family, she would have you laughing when you were feeling down, help put your bad mood into corner, then start those moments all over again with a different point of view and laughter, I love her, I'm gonna miss talking to her. I will still have those wonderful funny times to pull me back when times get cloudy, she is the light, and always will be. God bless us with her giving spirit, and love, and I will always be grateful. Thank you Jesus, she will never be forgotten.

Aunt Becky I love you so very much. You were the sweetest person on earth to me. You never had a negative thing to say about anyone. You were ALWAYS uplifting in your words and deeds. I'm going to miss laughing and being silly with you so much. While you sleep I'll carry you in my heart until we see each other again. You were so loving and I'm going to carry that always. I love you so very much. Your neice Linda.
