“ Kenny, I was so saddened to hear about the passing of Regina. She and my dad Eligh Arnold go way back. Eligh used to do work at her home when you and I were younger. Her warm smile will be truly missed. I also learned recently that our sons play basketball at Saginaw High school and are on the same team. His name is Henry. What a small world. My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time.

Regina you will truly be missed. You were a wonderful lady. Your radiant smile would light up a room. You were a wonderful mother to Kenny and I thank you for sharing him with me. I know you are in heaven looking down on him and the grandchildren. You will always be in all of our hearts. I am glad you enjoyed your life when you retired. I will watch him on earth and you will watch him from heaven. You did an excellent job in raising him. He is a wonderful young family man and you can be proud in a job well done. Take up your wings and enjoy heaven.
