“ I remember Richard being one of my most supportive and passionate parents. When at the tournaments he would be on that baseline not just showing support for Dee but the entire team. He would give those refs headaches and kept them on their toes. He would even come and encourage me if we lost or gave me props if we won. Such a gentle soul. Definitely gone too soon. Prayers for Darlene and the kids and the entire Vaughn family.

Sport grew up around the corner from me. He was ALWAYS full of energy, vibrant, and happy. Once he got married, every time I saw him, he ALWAYS talked about his wife and kids!! He truly was a AWESOME young man. To the family. 2 simple words....STAY ENCOURAGED... This from Nette, Kisha, Rob, Monie and Aunt Penny.
