“ We went to school together from middle on....I just remember him, being funny....and he never judged me for what I didn't have like his counter parts. He was always the same whenever I seen him. Been so caught up with the family I lost, I didn't know. Thank you for the friendship Click<sup>100</sup>

“ I was very fond of Ricky (Click) and have so many memories. One special one was when I was teaching him Romeo and Juliet, a school project and paper he had to write while attending Saginaw High. We worked on that project for a whole week. We read the play, read the book from the library, looked at the play and it still didn't click :). Then finally the Lord led me to go rent the movie "Romeo Must Die". After we looked at that movie he started asking questions and finally he got it!. He started writing the paper. asked more questions and finally finished. He got a "B". He was so excited and so was I. The art of learning is a great experience. There were so many other experiences, some that I use when I am preaching to young people. He had a big influence on my life. I have a wonderful granddaughter because of him. My husband and I will never forget you "Click". Rest in peace my son and know that you were loved. Bishop James and Lady Brenda Buford
