“ With Deep Sympathy to the Family. The loss of a loved one brings much grief and pain. But the Bible talks about doing away with this pain at Revelation 21:4. May God's love provide you with peace and comfort.

“ Going to miss cousin "Dank"--nobody could say my nickname "Tootie Bug" like he could! He's been around for as long as I can remember, at Papa Nash and Mama Hattie's house, him and "Lit" (Lillie Mae). All of the older cousins are leaving us now, it's up to us to carry on the Nash legacy. To his son, which I never knew, so sorry for your loss. To the rest of the family, nieces, nephews, and all, he lived a long, good life, and God saw fit for him to take his rest. He was a Christian man, so I know he is now safe in the loving arms of Jesus. He is gone to where we should be trying to get to. Sleep on cousin, I hope to see you on the other side one day!

“ Dear Johnson Family and Friends,
I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. May it comfort you to know that The Most High God has resurrected humans before and He assures us He will do it again. (Acts24:15). God longs to bring back those who have fallen asleep in death to perfect health under paradisaic conditions right here on Earth. (Job14:14,15)
