“ Dorothy, Elton and I will never forget you, Bob and the boys and how you welcomed us to Hawaii in 1972. Elton was in the military and we needed a place to live until base housing became available Hickam AFB. You and Bob were gracious landlords, wonderful neighbors and a pleasure to be around. Our friendship blossomed and has lasted over the years. We'll always remember Bob as hardworking and devoted to you and the boys. Bob's love for golf was reflected in the meticulous way he cared for his lawn. It was the prettiest Putting Green in Hawaii. May he rest in peace. Our prayers and thoughts are with you, Darnell, Bobby, and the entire Mckandes family. Love and Peace be with you. Elton & Bernice Stokes
