“ Ruben I have known since 1962 when I was eight years old. We've shared many a good moment, many laughs and meals together.

It was Ruben who informed me in 1990 that the church in Carrollton needed a pastor. He advised me to contact his wife and the sixteen years later I'm still serving as the pastor of New Beginning Christian Church formerly called Clearstone First Baptist.

I will miss hearing your voice, and I will miss discussing various topics with you especially sports and life in general. You sang a song in our male chorus, I'm gonna walk this road to glory, children my Lord and I.

Ruben I'm already missing you, as everyone that knew you are as well. And you can believe we are going to help Lois as much as humanly possible. Until I reach the other shore. God bless.
