Pauline just sitting here pondering my mind and thinking, what would mom tell us? I can hear her saying death is like a thief in the night. You won't know the hour, minute or day. I really miss her too. But though it all I try to keep my mind stayed on the Lord. BECAUSE that's what she did.

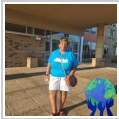

Love you big sister Sharon

“ *Dear Smith Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress according to Psalms 83:18, and Psalms 65:2. Please be assured, death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28.29 and Isaiah 25:8. My family and I wish you and yours peace.*

My dear friend Jackie & family: It's the little things, the small, everyday occurrences that you'll remember. The laughs, the stories, the smiles. And even though it seems like you can never recover from your loss, it is these very memories that will help push the pain away and bring back the smiles. Love you Sissae!

“ *The Smith Family,
Jn.14:1, "Let not your heart be troubled, if you believe in GOD believe also in me". In our lives God share with us those who are very special to us (Ms.Ruby) they get to our hearts by the special things they do, we get so close at times that when God do something with them that we don't completely understand we get distraught, we need not worry or be afraid because we know that Ms.Ruby knew and LOVED "THE LORD" and did not worry about anything, always doing good deeds, giving advice, suggestions, and ever being a praying servant of the Lord even while going thru herself(Ms. Ruby)
Our prayer is that the family and us will not let her legacy go in vain, love one another just as she would want you all and us to do. Will miss her so much on our trips home. Praying mightily for Mr. Smith in the days to come..
May God bless the Family*

“ Olivia Kincaid and Family Austin, Jackie Joe , Sharon, and the rest of the Smith Family. I'm sorry to hear about the lost of your mom. I know at times like this we don't understand. Know that she is now in Our Fathers Hands. Ecclesiastes 3:1 says There is a appointed time for everything. And there is a time for every event under heaven... I will keep your family in my prayers... And to be absent from the body is to be present with the Father.

“ To the family of Mrs. Smith, another real mother and grandmother has gone on to be with our LORD and SAVIOR. I'm truly sorry for your loss. She was a giving person to all. But rest assure the good LORD makes no mistakes. He needed Mrs. Smith leadership in heaven and called her home. So mourn her passing and it's alright to cry. But If you believe in what she believed in and that's GOD, you will see her again. May you find comfort in this message.

Mother Smith was a wonderful individual who always had a kind word and greeting for me. She always had a wonderful smile and would always ask about my Mother and Grandmother. She will be sincerely missed. Another soldier had completed her journey and has gone home for her reward.

To the Smith family, may God keep and comfort you through this trying and difficult time. May it give you comfort to know that she is now in the presence of the Lord. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

But I knew that the day would come and that you would be gone to heaven to sing your favorite songs to the angels in the presence of our God. I know that is just the selfishness in me. My heart is so, so ,heavy and I am trying so hard to hold things together. I know that God is always walking with me and my faith in him will keep me strong.. I know that you have peace and that's fine. Loving you for the rest of my life.*
