Where do I start.....I am gonna miss my sweet and lovely grandmother dearly. Her talks that we had plus all of the wisdom she gave was priceless. She was so funny and could cook so well. She was never angry but always meek. She is forever in our hearts and I will never forget her love that she gave to me. I feel blessed to have had her so long. God is good! In the presence of the Lord is where she longed to be. She told us if you live right you will see me again. What a saint she was. Rest on until that great day!!! Love you❤❤❤❤❤

To the Vance and White Family, my thoughts and prayers are with you. I will not attend any activities with you because of the Covid-19 Pandemic guidelines, however, I care about you. Sadie was a strong supporter of family gatherings and family support for accomplishments and challenges. She was a praying individual whose desire was for family members to know God for themselves. She was a good example of doing what you can for a person today, so you will not have regrets tomorrow. You have a great legacy to cherish. Your challenge is to be your best self daily. I thank God for giving her a long life and many happy moments with each of you. I will miss her wisdom and laughter. God will see you through this loss. Lavarne White

I have many memories of the Vance, Jones and Williams families, as our parents all migrated to Michigan around the same time.
