“ To the Youngblood, Williams and extended family: My memory of Ms. Sarah goes way back to the Houghton School neighborhood days. She was always a sweet lady to the children in the neighborhood and did not mind getting in your case when she saw you misbehaving. I remember her at one time selling freeze cups one summer so that the children had some refreshment after leaving Mershon Pool. My prayers go out to the entire family - most of whom I grew up with. Take your rest, Ms. Sarah - God has called you from labor to reward. To the family, may God give you strength to endure the days ahead. I can tell you from experience that Jesus will be a mother for her children, I know cause he has been one for me. Trust and lean on him for comfort.

With sincere and deep sympathy, your childhood friend & neighbor

Pat and family, I was so saddened to hear of your mother's passing, and I can say that I truly know how you all feel. Just take comfort in knowing that God will never put no more on us than we can bear. That is hard to believe, but it is so true. Mama is gone from the body, but her memory lives on. Those are some of the things that will help you get through. I am praying strength and peace for all of you. God can and he will take care of all of you.
