“ Seneca was a quiet gentle soul. He was kind when he got to know you. It took a little time for him to get to know you. He liked to cook. I didn't talk to him often but when we did he was a delight. He will be missed. I thank God that he isn't in pain anymore or suffering. I know he is rejoicing with the angels and in the Lords loving arms. I know I will see him again.
