“ It's taken 4 months for me to be able to come on here, sheila raised me as if I exited her body, I love this woman to no ends, we grew together, we laughed together, we cried together, and we fought together, but no matter what we went through we never stopped loving each other, my kids knew her as granny right along with her real grandbabies, and my kids made her a great granny too, 2 beautiful boys that had the pleasure of meeting her, I miss her so much that I'm still not functioning at full capacity, she had this beautiful laugh that I can still hear, we would talk on the phone for hours, talking about everything and nothing, she fought for so long, I knew she was getting tired, and I knew we'd have to let her go, but it still hurts so bad and I wish that I could just tell her one more time how much I love her, how she shaped me to be the woman that I am, how much she's missed, and to hear her laugh. I pray that God reads this to you, we love and miss you so much, love tosha
