

Mrs. Shirley A. Young

October 12, 1954 - March 1, 2022

On Tuesday, March 1, 2022 at the age of 67 years, our beloved wife, mother, sister, grandmother, aunt and friend, Shirley A. Young peacefully made her transition to be with the Lord. She was born October 12, 1954 in Schlater, Mississippi, daughter of Percy L. Summerall and Littie A. Holland -Summerall-Woodard.

In 1957 Shirley relocated to Cleveland, Ohio from Greenwood, Mississippi with her parents and five siblings. She attended elementary in the Cleveland Public Schools later relocated to Saginaw, Michigan in 1967 with her mother, step-father and two sisters. There she attended Arthur Eddy Middle School and graduated from Saginaw High School in 1973 where she met her best friend and love of her life Elbert aka Truck. Shirley continued her education at Delta College, Saginaw, Michigan until she joined in the union of marriage with her husband on May 8, 1976. From there she traveled with her husband in the US Army from Oklahoma to Fort Knox Kentucky.

Mrs. Shirley enjoyed reading books, traveling, cooking, fishing, shopping, growing flowers, decorating, listening to music, working with and meeting new people. Thus, leading her to earn her state certification on June 16, 1990 as a Nurse Assistant through the Michigan Department of Consumer & Industry Services. This granted her the opportunity to work as a Home Health Care Nurse for such companies as, A & D Home Health Care, Baxman. She was certified as a Mental Health Tech at Crisis Residential Treatment Program and later worked with the child development programs of Saginaw Township Schools and Saginaw I.S.D. Head Start.

Mrs. Shirley Young grew up in a Christian home and attended the Christ Fellowship Missionary Baptist Church, she sang in the choir, assisted in the youth department, and helped develop programs and outings such as bowling, and skating. She enjoyed volunteering her time during special events in the kitchen and being one of the hostesses to help serve food. Shirley continued her spiritual growth by viewing, supporting, and praying with her son, Shannon and daughter-in-law's church out of Orlando, Florida where she was a member. Mrs. Shirley enjoyed traveling with her youngest son, DeAndre with the Saginaw High School Drumline and Band.

Mrs. Shirley always encouraged her family and friends through her pearls of wisdom and easily related to all her nieces and nephews. When Mrs. Shirley was in the room, she loved to have the room uplifted with laughter, love and smiles.

Shirley leaves to cherish her memories husband, Elbert L. Young, Jr.; two sons, Shannon E. (Nydetra) Young, Orlando, Florida, DeAndre L. Young, Grand Rapids, Michigan; granddaughter, Ceirra Outlaw, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, two sisters, Betty (Albert) Mitchell, Cleveland, Ohio, Marchelle (Derric) Martin, Saginaw, Michigan; two brothers, Percy L. (Nyoka) Summerall, Jr., Cleveland, Ohio and James L. “ To Truck, Shannon and DeAndre. I watched Shirley's celebration of life service and it was beautiful. Shannon, your mom's eulogy was fantastic!! I know she was smiling down on you and saying "I knew you could do this". I know that I will really miss Shirley. Even though I would only see her when I came to Saginaw, she was my friend on Facebook. I miss her post and her comments on whatever she thought was important to share her point of view. Whenever I didn't see her on Facebook I knew she had been put in "Facebook jail". LOL

I will definitely miss not seeing her during The O'Daniels Family Reunions when we start having them again. Shirley has began a journey that we all must take. I will keep you in my prayers as you begin your new normal. Sending my love and condolences to you and the Young family. Love you, Aunt LeeAnn

“ My Sincere Condolences to her Husband, Sons and Family. Keeping you all in Prayer. It deeply sadden me to hear of Shirley passing. Shirley had such a sincere heart and soul. When I last spoke with her we talked about the past and the fun we had gathering together back in the day. She spoke of our family being just like family, and I said yes we are like family. Am so glad that I was able to share those moments with her. Her dedication to her husband, Children and Family was Pure Love. My God continue to uplift the family during this time of sorrow. May the memories you have of her remain within your Heart. Rest in Heaven Shirley. ❤️❤️
