“ I met Stephany through the Canton Women's Group. Though I did not know her long, I appreciated her sense of humor and strong faith. She had a face that radiated God's love. She shared funny stories about her time as a flight attendant and also how she gracefully deescalated situations during these tricky covid times. She will be missed.

As fate would have it our airlines merged and we would see each other in passing. Until she transferred to Detroit base. We were just talking in inflight the other day about her next move to a new location and how happy she was. I will miss my friend/roomie 🙏

“ Nothing or no one could have prepared me for this loss, I am truly heartbroken, I simply have no words. I am comforted in knowing that you truly loved the Lord and are resting in His arms. You were and have always been an inspiration, always sharing a positive word. I promise to take care of your mom and dad. Aunt Helen and Uncle Herman, I love you both with everything in me. God please give them the strength needed to get through this difficult time. ~ Until we meet again my Sister-Cousin Stephanie....I Love you, affectionately your Sister-Cousin Karen Denise💔
