“ My condolences to the White family. I met Sylvia when we were employed at S. Michigan McDonald's in the '90's, it was a blessing to know her. She was a very stern and beautiful young lady. She was known to us as Momma Lil'. I remember the days with Big Les and Thomas in the production area, they would give us a run for our money. 😊😊 This came as a shock to me, but our God knows best. We had a common denominator "Jesus Christ to share our love for Him was amazing . Sylvia will surely be missed on this side. I say rest on my sister. You were loved down here but God loved you more, in God's loving care.
Ps. 30:5 Weeping may endure for a night but JOY comes in the morning

“ My condolences to the family of Sylvia White. I met Sylvia I believe in the '90s working at McDonald's. She was a JOY to work with. Sylvia didnt take much foolishness. She was a very stern but beautiful person. She would go by the name of Mama Lil'. She represented her faith well, at some point we went our separate ways but we had a common denominator "JESUS CHRIST". So rest on my sister, you will be missed on this side, but God had a better place.
