“ *To the Brewer & Jackson Family:
My deepest sympathies go out to your family at this time.
Remember the tears will dry and the years fly by but your love for "Meeko" will never die. Hold on to the memories and good times you shared with your love one. God will see you through this difficult time.*

“ I am saddened to know that another wonderful person has been taken away from us so soon but, I am glad to know that my friend has no more worries and no more earthly issues. To the rest of the family, I pray that you find comfort in the LORD and JESUS because without the spirit we are lost. When we go before GOD in judgement, let's try to be in good standings with our father. Let's go home together.

“ Meco was my first best friend. I will miss her and will love her always. My condolences goes out to all the family. I grew up with Meco and i was there to witness how much she was loved by all. I know she lived a wonderful life because i was there to enjoy it with her alot of the times.
We didn't talk that often once we became adults but i still considered her as a best friend we had been through alot together. I am so sorry for your lost Punkin, Na, Mesha, James, Stan, Tia and family. You all gave her all the love in the world. She knew she had all the love in the world and thats why she smiled all the time. I will think about her and remember that smile. I love you all!

“ Meco I will miss you dearly. Man we grew up together and when our family's threw those parties we always had fun running around the pool, seeing who was the fastest and just crackin jokes, and killing those bbq's. God Bless your kids and family in this great time of loss but also in a celebration of life as you were full of life until God called you home.

Rest in Piece.

“ We are very sorry that you all had to experience such a tragic lost. Mesha, we love you and we understand the lost of a mother. I am sure there is nothing that we can do to ease your pain today, but if there is anything that we can do, know that we are in your corner 100%. To the enitre family, you all are in our prayers as well. Only God can CARRY you through this, His grace is sufficient and He is always present. Uncle Gene, T-Plow & Ke-Ke

“ To the Brewer family,
II Corinthian 5:1, the Apostle Paul informs us of this; when this earthly house we live in is destroyed, we have a building from god an eternal home in heaven, not built by human hands.

Know that our prayer are with you doing your time of sorrow.

“ To the entire family. I had an opportunity to be a good friend to Meco. I was a Senior to her Freshman year, and she just took a taking to me. She was a very soft spoken person. I would say girl speak up. She will be truly missed. Tia and the rest of the family, God will help you in your weakest and lowest point. Dahl L. Enoch

“ *Mary, Willie, and family: I will really miss Meco, as everyone will. Her smiles and sincere hugs will be missed. I was thinking about the time Mecko was my map reader when we went to Alcorn State to see Tim. She was only 11 or 12, but she could read a map. We never got lost!! Keep the good memories always in your heart. God knows all about us; even better than we know ourselves. He knows our evry need and hears our daily prayers. There is one thing we must understand, It is HIS will, not ours that must be done, so we must leave it all in HIS capable hands. We will keep you in our prayers. “ *To the Brewer Family, I am trulysorry for your lost I saw Meco just a couple of weeks ago and had not seen her for at least a while still she had the same glowing smile upon her face. When we were kids
I was always jealous because all the boys at Morley liked them.
Guess what as soon I got old enough I had my mom by me some,came over on Hosmer went swimming with Meco and they washed out in the pool! Laugh Out Loud!!!!!! Temeco was a very caring person and I'm sure she was smiling at the Lord when he gave her the wings to fly along side him. May the Lord Bless you and comfort you in your time of sorrow.*
