“ With each day passing I realize that the news of your passing is REAL! I can't believe it....I have so many memories of you that'll keep me smiling...I'll never forget your smile nor your laugh and I can't forget your encouragement...your warm heart...You've left behind so many with broken hearts, tears, fears, and unanswered questions. Youré in a better place, a place without a care in the world. You are loved and missed!!!!

“ Through the years growing up and attending school with Terry, he was, a very pleasant person to be around with. Seem like yesterday we were playing at school or on the block. I offer my condolences to the Baskin family.

“ I have been blessed with having known and worked along side you for the past ten years. You are truly one of a kind. You always kept us laughing even when we didn't want to or feel like it. The thing that I most admire about you is your realness, your inability to fake your emotions no matter how hard you tried. You've given me yet another reason to want to make it to Heaven when I leave this place. Lets face it, you ain't gonna make it no better, but it's definitely going to be a whole lot funnier. So until I see you again, stay cool, stay real, stay "Tweet".

“ During your time of bereavement we pray that God will comfort the family. Know this, the God we serve is able and willing to wipe all tears from your eyes. Weeping may endure for the night, but joy comes in the morning. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. You loved Tweet and so did we, but God loved him best. Be thankful for the time that God allowed you to have. Be Blessed,

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family and especially to his children. Tweet is one person that I'll NEVER forget...he had a way of creating peace and light even in gloom situations. He was a hardworking man that sincerely loved his children; he had a smile and laugh that was so contagious....the news of this is so surreal.....Tweet.....you'll be missed!

“ I wish the family well, and sorry for your loss. Tweet, was a big brother to us he kept us laughing with all the stories he told, and he could tell some stories. He will be sadly missed his time here was short, our hearts are hurting now but we have his memories to keep us going and in time it will ease the pain soon your family chain will be linked again and we all will be reunited one day soon.
