“ The Vonnie and entire Bell Family:

The loss of a mother is the loss of your best friend. I will always remember Mrs. Theresa as one my Aunt Fannie Atkins best friend, I will remember her as strong Christian woman, her meloedist voice in the Tabernacle choir, a loving mother but most of all a child of the king. Rest on Mrs. Theresa, your labor was not in vain. May God bless you all and give you strength to endure the days ahead.

“ To her children, siblings and extended family, I extend the condolences from my family to you in the passing of Ms. Theresa. Ms Theresa Bell was a mother and wife who embodied Proverb 31, "The Virtuous Woman" in her life and was a blessing to those who knew her. I pray that the Spirit of the Most High God will comfort and keep you now and in the days to come and that you, her fruit, will live for the One she dedicated her life to. Her angelic soprano voice has truly reached the ultimate height now and such a gift to us can never be silenced as long as we remember His gift to us. Serve Him as she did, love Him as she did and love each other as she did. May God Bless and keep you!!

“ To the Bell and Thomas Family,

Take comfort in knowing that your Mother, Sister and Aunt is at home with the Lord. Surely T-Bell is singing in her brand new home - Heaven! I will never forget the beautiful voice God blessed her with, and the laugh that was hers! She was an inspiration to me. My Aunt, Mrs. Eva Whitt, was saddened at her passing. She looked upon Mrs. Bell as her daughter. T-Bell will be missed. Sent with my deepest sympathy and condolences to the entire family. Mary McDonald and Mrs. Eva Whitt

“ To the Family of Theresa D. Bell,

May your hearts soon be filled with wonderful memories of joyful times together as you celebrate a life well lived. Mrs. Bell was my Amicae Advisory when I was a 1985 Debutante. I always had a special place in my heart for her and the affection and guidance that she always displayed. Psalm 30:5 saysweeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning; we are blessed to know that one day we ail be in Mrs. Bell's presence again.....

“ I remember Theresa as a woman that loved the Lord and was always helping others to know the Lord. A woman with vision and leadership and did not mind telling you the truth and making sure you were going in the right direction. She will be missed but God loved her more and she will hear God say "WELL DONE MY GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT."

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to the Bell family and friends. Although, Theresa has passed to be with the Lord, God is still in the blessing business and with us all. Death is not always a good feeling to endure, but it is a debt we all have to pay, just keep the faith in God almighty and keep yourselves positioned for when God calls on us. God will fight our battles, but we must do our part here on earth too, by keeping his commandments and hold onto the faith. May God be with all of you.

“ My heart was deeply saddened to hear of the passing of your mother. But I quickly started remembering the precious times we all shared at Tabernacle growing up, listening to her beautiful soprano voice and her sometimes stern but honest words of encouragement brought a quick smile. I thank God for having known her and the family. Her sweet spirit will live in all our hearts forever. She was the epitome of a beautiful and strong wife, mother, grandmother, friend and Christian! Continue to trust God and give Him praise in ALL things! Love, Ann

“ Say not in grief that she is no more,
but say in thankfulness that she was.
A death is not the extinguishing of a light, but the putting out of the lamp
because the dawn has come.

I will always cherish your joyful laughter. Rest in peace.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Miss Theresa was a shining example of a strong, black woman, as well as a true follower of Christ. She was also a wonderful and faithful wife, mother and friend. As a young woman growing up in Tabernacle...Mrs. Bell was one of my examples of what a TRUE woman should be. I thank God that I got to experience her in my life and I celebrate the fact in knowing her. To the family, I pray that God will grant you peace during this difficult time. "Weeping my endure for a night but joy comes in the morning"! Love you all.

“ I was so saddened to hear of your loss. Theresa was more than godmother to my child, she was a friend who always had an open ear and a kind word. Her loving heart was always available, even when her body wasn't as cooperative. A devoted wife, a loving mother, a doting grandmother and godmother, a supportive family member and a cherished friend, Theresa is at peaceful rest now, in the presence of God. She had the brightest smile and the most contagious laugh (which she shared often). I, as you, will miss her but I rest in the assurance, I will see her again. Family, know that her love for you was second only to her love for her God and she was very proud and honored to be a part of your lives. Love you all,
