“ Torion, was one of my best friends. We went to school together from 1st to 5th grade, then we drifted apart. Whenever I saw him we always spoke to each other. I was always telling my friends about him, and it's like they know him now. He would always tell my mom when someone didn't like me, or anything. He always asked about me, but I never saw as much until that day. About an hour before the accident, I saw him, and my mom told me to go talk to him, and I said no, because he probably wouldn't remember me. Now I wish that I had said something now that he is gone. So I just want to say to Chris, Marquist, Terrance, and Maryland, that I love you all, and I really loved your son because we were best friends.
