“ Happy Birthday babe! 52..wish you were here! We always talked bout what, where we be in our 50's.. One child left in the nest. Smh we was gonna be back down where it was warm. Most of my NY family already relocated, my parents won't move, so me and Zil waiting, sure Meek will come too..other kids all doin there own thing. Meek misses you more than anything.. just because life was what it was, he spent more time 24/7 with you, I had to work etc..y'all were together always. Get people who come up and remember you and him together all the time..yeah he has told me some of the crap y'all used to sneak off and do, donuts on the truck, fast food runs, shopping..smh. His heart gets so weighed down with missing you. Not saying the others and me don't miss you as well, just you two were inseparable! Hope you know none of the kids, grandkids forget you. You will always be on our tongues, all generations will hear, see and know you! Coco..we WILL keep you alive! Love you and miss you. Always and Forever. (All the cards and letters with these words..smh) Me

“ Happy Father's Day Tracy! Always stabs to see and look for you in obituaries! Although we adjust over time, the pain is always there! For most, giving in to that pain would be to drown and never return...so we choose to survive, to deal/adjust and block out that overwhelming pain! I know you visit, I taught and remind the kids how to watch for visits, although I keep pushing them to not dwell but to live life to the fullest, so you can be proud when you check in. We love you Always & Forever Tracy! Visit all the kids and grand babies today! Xoxoxo

“ My husband! HAPPY 51st babe!! Lord knows this world has done gone crazy!! Wish you was here cuz I know we would be cutting up on these people! 😭😭 Kids get tired of hearing it plus you know, they not our age so yeah, they can't relate nor understand the shit at all! Smh not gonna lie, these kids sure do miss and need you! We all do, but you know, they need their dad! I always hoped by the time you got to this age you would've grown enough to be there for all these kids! Meek spent so much time with you, more than any of us, cuz everyone was gone to school/work..his heart hurts! I know you hear us speaking bout you, with you..even tho I don't come here as much, you are still in the daily! I even had a friend comment on how much we talk about you, as if you were still here..told her faith! You are still around! We would be having so much fun right now with all this craziness! You see the all powerful?! Lord!! THAT one! Just too much! So many times I wonder what you must think watching this madness here! It's been a challenge! Gotta go tend to food! Be listening cuz we all be talking to you! We love you Tracy, hope to see a sign tmrw! Happy Birthday again babe!

“ Just sat for 20 minutes writing only to have it disappear!! Ugghh!! My husband, been a long time, I know. Sorry for that, but life gets so busy. Many times I wish you were here, to share in all the milestones everyone is going through. Everyone keeps going, but you are never far from our thoughts Tracy. I think back on the good and bad...so much destruction! Although I understand we all have strengths and weaknesses...mostly from our childhood, we MUST overcome! I understand not everyone is as strong...just hurts for all the mess that was caused! Hurts that so many lives have pain..pain that didn't need to be! Smh I get so mad at you sometimes..all the bs that went on, affecting everyone's life! You had/have so many that love you..need you! It should've been better!! Kids, grandkids are all doing so many positive things! Things they needed you for, things you should've been here for!! I learned early in life not to be too attached to any emotion too much..good or bad! Nothing is forever..just enjoy the here and now! I won't allow myself to be drug down that dark hole..too many don't pull themselves back out..so I just keep a distance..only allowing for brief moments..too overwhelming! Meek has gotten caught up more this year with emotions of missing you..tell him you're never far, still witnessing. But after all the 24/7 time you two spent, I know it's hard on him! Hell you two were together more than me and you!! He is missing that male guidance, bond, as they all are! At least the other kids have each other..my brothers are far away but still try. Smh He has much support etc. but not the same as coming from a male! You! Why God meant for two people to raise kids! Faith is what gets us through!! I wish my previous words didn't erase..had it worded better!! Hard to rewrite!! Everyone has missed your presence! I hope you continue to give positive nudges when it's needed! Without all the drama and stress you should be able to "visit" with everyone more! Times are so crazy right now..between 45 and all his bs, and this virus..pure crazy!! I often say how much I miss "our" fun..not everyone thinks like us..you know, how we be the only ones laughing!! 🤔🤔 Just staying focused on keeping the kids going forward..doing their best, living their best! You still be putting everyone through a wide range of emotions..sorrow, laughter, anger, love...smh You will always be missed! We DID have alot of good laughs, good times!! SO thankful for the pictures and videos..Stay close by all! Always and Forever! Your wife!! ❤️❤️❤️🙏🙏🙏😭😭😭

“ To my husband, yes, Tracy you are still missed and remembered! There's pretty much not a day that goes by that you are not mentioned in one way or another! This day Sept. 22 will forever be etched in our minds! This day connects all, whether we like it or not! ALL of your kids, everyone whom you had any relationships with whether through marriage, kids, siblings, aunts, uncles, cousins, friends...all of our friends, teachers, classmates that shared in our pain and shock when you so abruptly left this world..we are all connected by you and this day! I know you watch over all your children, you know you are very much loved, your presence missed ever so dearly! We all know we shall meet again, that's what keeps us going! We all know things were not perfect, sometimes anger and confusion may show, happiness and sadness with good memories, sometimes pain and sorrow seep out before we even have a chance to catch it! But forgiveness for all stands strong! Life is not perfect, neither are any of us, we can only strive to be better at understanding, knowing and growing about/and for ourselves Tracy. I sincerely pray that you have found peace with the things that seemed to hurt you so bad. So many things are passed from one generation to the next..why it is vital to every generation to try and get wrongs from the last right for the next! We got you! Your children WILL be great parents, achievers OF life! They will understand much! I do not mean in the sense of being famous, professors (although you never know! Lol), but through you (and yes their mothers, because we too have grown from our relationship with you) THEY will have positive input for the next generation! Without a doubt! Have peace with that knowledge! Although much has changed and we have all went our ways, we will always have connection with you! We love you and miss you! Always and Forever! ❤️❤️❤️❤️

Wish you were here for us to have cake and celebrate..so hard doing this aging thing by myself when we used to talk so much smack about making fun of each other when we did age! How we were gonna trip each other with our canes! Even tho we're not THAT old yet..just would've been different..with the kids at different stages in their lives....hope you get to look in on each and every one of us. We love you Tracy, always have..just wish alot of things could've been changed/better. I know you are aware of how much we keep you in our daily lives..can't help it! More than anything, we loved your playfulness/silliness. I find myself imitating you all the time..most of the time the kids pick up on it and laugh even harder..so you're still making us laugh! Won't lie, stabs me in my heart when I crack jokes...the ones I realize after the fact, that only me and you would understand! Life has to go on, just know you are dearly missed! “ Listening to Joyce..the one you turned me on to..she is so down to earth! Love her messages! Many times when I go to church, the preacher has the same or real close, message! That's when I know for sure it was meant for me to hear! So often Tracy, I wish we could have made some changes..got into the church me and kids are at now! Seriously think it would've changed so much! Realize it's all up to each of us individually..but think God would've got that strong hand on you..and you'd still be here! There was so much left unsaid..by you, me..not just between us, but all the kids! So many wrongs that should have been righted..truths told, lies undone! Just would've changed so much going forth..for all of us! Would've been easier peace for all! (Can only speak for us in this house, although I believe it applies to all) happy that we have our faith..Our Father surely keeps us walking in peace..guiding us a little more every day! The times we tried so hard to make changes..get into a church..devil won! SMH We all go forward knowing we have your love..with a certain amount of peace..just would have been so nice to have you here..sharing in all the new joys and milestones! I still speak of your amazing intelligence in so many different areas with the same pride!! Will always miss that...still bragging about you knowing facts about things most have never even heard of! LOL You could have easily been a teacher/professor! Of course, as a mechanic..goes without saying, I am quick to let people know, my husband was the master!! Sometime me and Malik will sit and watch "Dad's" channels...History, Discovery,National Geographic..you were always watching the strangest things...things that we ended up getting sucked into watching because you would start telling us about it! SMH Seriously miss all your input and those times Tracy! You know how much I admired and bragged about you being so smart...just found it so amazing!!! How I wish I could have convinced you to do something bigger with all of that! You always blew me off when I tried getting you to see your true worth! Can't tell you how much I miss all those juicy lil tidbits you used to put out there! So does Poppy!(You were the only one who could hang with Poppy) Meek is trying to keep you proud by shooting facts about stuff to Poppy! LOL Boy gets on my and Zil's nerves sometimes! Reminds me so much of you! Just never know what is gonna attract and bond you to another! As hard as I tried..couldn't get you to understand how awesome these things were..for YOU to see and know your value was much higher than just being that person everyone wanted to be with...being the life of the party...there was so much more to you! That stuff was just the icing! I'll quit rambling on...just have to remind myself to leave positive memories here...not just pain! We love you Tracy! Always and Forever..my husband! Muah! “ Words can't even come close to memories..feelings...the kids are all doing great..but they all have great pain when it comes to you! Above and beyond my own pain..I hurt for all of the children who don't have their father! I understand you were not perfect Tracy, but time changes people...it would have meant a great deal to all of them to still have you here...for you to share in all their accomplishments..the grandbabies...it pains me more than you know to see their pain. I finally made up with my father...thanks to you! It's not the best relationship..but it is a relationship now..one that was not there before! God works in mysterious ways...watching you suffer with the way things were with some of the kids is the only reason I decided to try with my own father..before the chance was taken from me as well! As you know, I better relate to the kids...you and mine were identical when it came to fathering! Baby doesn't even know what it's like to have a father...I try extra hard with her..grateful that Malik remembers and has so many memories to share with her! As with Meek and ALL your children...the physical presence of their father weighs heavy on their hearts! So many times they have needed you Tracy! You know my background, so it hits me just as hard...I know and feel their pain! When you were here, and now! Fathers need to realize, although us moms are strong and will do what is necessary for our children to flourish, a child, regardless of age. still needs their father! My heart breaks for all of them! We are all human, and have our weaknesses, just sad that so many males can't seem to overcome..as females do, to be strong for their children!! I understood your issues from your past..Lord knows you had two strong women in your life, who tried to support you and help you grow..just wasn't enough! We all miss your presence. Tracy! “ Babe...As I get ready to take the truck in for yet another repair..can't help but be upset that you never believed in yourself enough to get your own business going! You could've trained others under you, know you didn't want to do full time, but it would have given you your own...to do and take care of everyone, including yourself, as you always wanted to! You were the best!!! Half these people out here can't even come close to your knowledge on repairing cars...much less anything else! You were SO intelligent in so many areas! You could've been a teacher/professor with all your knowledge! I always tried pushing you to do something with your talent...anything so you had your own in this world! TY for always schooling me on car repairs, and all the rest of those oddball facts (you and Poppy..smh) that no one else would know! Miss your input always!

I just took two of the hardest hits I thought I would neve have to take so early. If only could my tears could bring the both of you back we all would be happy again. I know when my granny made it up there yall was excited. I know you both are living the life up there. Today is Jan st 2017 and I watched your video on here its the only thing that keeps me going when I think about you ... Love you daddy ..*

“ Tried putting a new image on here..seems having issues!
Just want you to know my husband, our Daddy...all will miss your laughter, playfulness...love! There's not a day that goes by all year that we do not remember something, but during the holidays especially, you are missed so much! I know you spend time with all of us, but wish so dearly so sit and talk, and be understood as only you could...to laugh at things that only the two of us find funny..to be held in your arms..snuggled next to you during the long winter nights, especially during Christmas eve peeking in at the kids so full of excitement for the coming day...enjoying those tender moments of closeness at the end of the night...waking up to your smile on Christmas morning as we sit and enjoy the kids excitement ripping their gifts open..the numerous phone calls from family and friends...smells of breakfast cooking (you sneakin' up behind me to steal a kiss and snuggle while a flip bacon)...me and you fighting over who was gonna play with which kids toys first! LOL I am forever grateful for all those years of memories Tracy...but God knows how much I..we miss you here with us! Merry Christmas

Remember how nice it was to wake up EVERY day to 80's first thing in the morning..winter's consisted of temps in the 60's! LOL We were both thriving! Watch over Zay!! All and everyone, but he needs little extra! So proud of him for makin' a great positive move...just the way the world is...can't help but be scared! Eric's spouse is in service too..smh world is so messed up! More they keep takin' God, who made us what we are, out of everything..worse things get! “Happy Father's Day Tracy! Sorry this will show up a day late..was just too exhausted and emotional last few days! I strive to keep your memory as a good one for the kids, but it shreds my heart to go through the holidays, especially this one, and see the kids pain! I know ALL of the kids hurt so deeply missing you, at least all of the kids DO have memories of spending a Father's Day with you at some point during their lives...except baby! She only remembers what she hears, and so very little! Thank God that the rest of us that were in our house can share with her through our stories, pictures and video's! Although, every year I say maybe THIS year we will sit and watch video's...but once again, I just can't do it!!!! I have to learn to better control MY pain, so I am able to sit with a positive attitude and watch with the kids! ALL of the kids are well aware just how much you are around!!!! Thanks again, to God! NEVER stop giving them signs! For our kids, it definitely gives them a HUGE boost to know you see them and are trying to give them some kind of guidance and protection! Although, I will admit, they rely more on their faith and God, they know their parents give them guidance THROUGH the strength Our Father gives us! How I react directly passes through to them! It gets hard..try to only let tears fall when they will not notice...even tho many times they do see them, they understand, they cannot, WE cannot let you look and see us falling! Why I tell them they MUST rely on God..I have my whole life, if you pay attention and LET Him..HE will NEVER fail us!!! Yes we do the best we can for our children..but at the end of the day, we have our shortcomings as well, as we are human and not perfect! They know there is only ONE..that is perfect, that will ALWAYS be there!! THAT is their true strength..more than even I, myself can ever give them! I make sure they see how I rely on God for my strength! Mer and Poppy are coming down of course today...they miss you more than you know...or maybe you do know! Even Mom has said she feels you around her very often! I know how close you two were, even when me and you were at odds! She shares in feeling of regrets! Deeply!! But I assure her as well, you ARE at peace now, and still *very much around! I have much to do, pray God keeps giving me strength and guidance! My body can only physically do so much, please keep giving me input when I am facing challenges where I am uncertain how to deal with! I pray God gives YOU the guidance and strength to still help all of us! We love you just the same as when you were physically here! Always and Forever...Your Family!

“ Just stoppin' in..Memorial Day Weekend...will miss you chillin...out shinin' car, sipping on your drinks, me grillin'..good eats and goofin' off with kids and Mer and Poppy, takin' them evening walks with the kids..lookin' for them falling stars..lol! We will still be doin' all that, glancing around because whether you're here physically or not, we still see you all around us...seriously shakes me when I glance somewhere, swear you're physically there..can hear you talkin' more times than I can say! Gonna try to stay busy this weekend, Lord knows I have plenty of yard work to do, stayin' busy and exhausted helps us get through! Make sure you have some of your new angels keep watch over all the kids, especially Zay with going in Navy! I know you are around all of us, all the time, but he's gonna need a little extra! Along with pride is the awfulness of worry..don't let one of our children be hurt in the craziness going on all around! You MUST keep him safe Tracy! I will stay prayin' to Our Father, with hopes He does not feel He needs one of ours to come home too soon! Zay has a really good head on his shoulders..he has stayed the quiet one, but observing all, taking in all around him..think he understands more than he gets credit for! I pray for all of the family...even the ones who are "distant"...don't wish any bad on anyone.... It IS gonna be a busy weekend..high 80's almost to 90 today..Woo Hoo...you know that's the stuff that we love! Even tho have the air on..you KNOW gonna try and stay outside til mosquito's hit! We were so active....was OUR season to actually live! Funny how we were so much the same like that...cold at the same time, same places, same reason..hibernated and didn't want to go out much in winter. But surely loved our heat in the summer..was just happy that the sun was shining and it was warm!! Would be outside doin' anything on the hottest days! Miss you Tracy..miss our times together, all the clowning around we enjoyed..we were couple of characters for sure! Of course I miss the snugglin' too..lol or tryin' hide from the kids! LOL Malik is takin' after you with those weird facts that only you and Poppy would know! He remembers most of everything you ever talked about...crazy how that kids memory is! “ Just stopping to say I miss you....and the Father/Daughter dance is coming up in couple weeks..just got the notice today. Told baby we might skip it this time and do it next year..maybe every other year...just don't have it in me! We'll see..sure I'll change my mind!

Basketball games, school concerts, and this dance...these are the things that you missed out on with all the other kids, we were so determined to get it right with these last two...SMH doin' my best to hold it down! Not only did you miss out, so have ALL of the kids..why I say I understand their feelings...same thing I went through with my Dad! It is so painful to go through that as a child..specially when you see/know your father/other parent is going to another child's events..even worse to then turn around and watch your own children go through it! Even tho your circumstances were different than my fathers, you actually wanted to be there, just without everything else...my dad didn't even care....something that more effort should have went into! Just like you, I just got tired of tryin' make things happen only to keep running into obstacles! With kids, you can't never stop tryin'..that's the very thing that keeps me going..sure I'll take her to the dance..don't have it in me..that little girl in me still remembers the things I didn't have! So much pain for so many kids! SMH Not in me to be a weak person! Don't know what I would do if I didn't have God and my faith to strengthen me..He takes such good care of us..find myself many times just sitting in awe!!! Our God is a powerful God that's for sure! “ I'm sitting here wondering..why?? Why life is played out the way it is..I know our Father has His reasons..but I believe our bad choices throw us off His intended path! I seriously hope you do what you can from where you are to correct many wrongs that are believed, done..you know and I know, it is necessary! Peace of mind! I have what I need through video's, letters, my family, pictures etc. to give our children that peace..I do not believe others have this..which leaves them believing and feeling so many wrong and negative things Tracy! Everyone deserves peace! I have grown to wash my hands of it all..yes, some will be happy to know that it hurt..to be a part of others life, to have them apart of ours..but such is life! All of the arguments over things that were going on, being said..just seems like a damn movie! Hopefully with time life will enlighten others..bring them peace to know, not all that was witnessed, said, and done should be taken at face value...was even close to the truth! WE know...you know..I guess I should have spoken up more..my family knows, because they know me..us! For some, the hurt and pain from years of misunderstanding, misinformed, and yes, wrongdoing will never be forgotten...but it can be eased for a certain peace of mind...especially towards the innocent! You are dearly loved by many Tracy, always was and always will be...but we are not perfect..some damage I fear will never fade! All I can do is keep my distance, raise our children in peace and PRAY! I pray for all involved! Much to do, just one of those moments when random things hit me..I guess when I stop for a second and think...which is something I don't do (on purpose!) often! Meek "did" his Dad...got me flowers for my birthday! He always goes out of his way to make sure and get me flowers.. "just like Dad always did Mom!" I know you can see how much he did learn from you! It means so much to all of us, when he does those little things...just puts you here physically! I'm sure you are spending some good time with the other kids and the new grandbabies..ain't they so beautiful! Precious is such a great mama!!! Just because the babies are easy to communicate with, don't be keeping them up all night neither! Know how you get carried away! Them mama's need to get their rest too! Wish I was closer with the kids, always, but I know that is Our Father's work. I have my hands full with the ones here! Wish there was more of me to spread around..all I can do is what He guides me to! Hoping everything goes good so me and kids can spend time with RuthAnn and her family, the church! Another great blessing! Just amazes me how He surrounds us..supports us with the right people at the right time...all to keep us strong! Praying for mom's surgery to go well...she often tears up when she speaks of you...you know you two had a special relationship! Although feel like stealing that picture of you she has up! “ Damn Christmas music took me down today!SMH First time listening to it, and cd got outta storage that we used to listen to! Temps...so much pain Tracy! Miss you so much...miss us...miss my other half..the one who understood me better than I myself did! Christmas is only few weeks away..hoping I can block this out! Was gonna take baby out to store..just got the life sucked outta me! Gonna be doin' some hard prayin' tonight..puttin' tree up and decorating house this weekend..gotta put on that happy face, and enjoy the time with the kids! Don't wanna ruin things for them...they surely don't deserve it! Talk to you soon babe...love you! Muah! XOXOXO

“ Well life has been extremely busy!! With our first parade since we last did one, I was the one and only doing the entire float! In between taking care of laundry, dinner, homework, bathes, hair etc. Swear you were with me! You surely would've enjoyed it..Lord knows could've used your help! I did end up getting sick as a dog after trick or treating and school party! Actually had to go to dr!!! SMH Things we do to make the kids happy! Got all the leaves burned! Took me 2 weeks to gather and burn..then house repairs..now basketball started back up! Tomorrow is turkey day! As always, you will be greatly missed! Although we feel you have been making yourself known! LOL Just wanted to stop in...miss you so much Tracy! Think Our Father keeps me so busy especially through the holidays, only have time for my tears while driving! Happy Thanksgiving babe! I'll save ya some beans! Every time I make them...just gotta put some in the back of frig! You and them beans! Gotta get some sleep..gonna be busy tomorrow! MUAH! XOXOXOXOX

“ Wasn't too cold tonight, but the rain kept coming! Gonna be quite sick tomorrow! Have been sick for the last week...but well worth it to see mama's little face so happy and excited! Had a weak moment when we first got started...you, my sister, last baby, who's growing too fast! Emotions got to be a little overwhelming! Got control tho, didn't want to ruin her fun! Meek stayed home and got NO kids at all...but Poppy came to get some candy! LOL Baby is snuggled up in bed after a nice warm bath! We were drenched by the time we got home..soakers and all! Some of her zombie makeup and blood soaked through to her coat! SMH We didn't think of that..oh well, why they make soap! Gotta get myself to sleep, church in the morning. Miss you dearly! “ Well..Halloween is a week away..hope you will be around us! Meek is sick once again..hoping baby won't be, some serious viruses goin' around, she's just gettin' over it! Every year! SMH He didn't wanna go anyway..him and his friends were gonna do a party, but too many gettin' sick! Gonna be another COLD one!!! Sure wish you were here to sip on your drink and drive the truck along! LOL Hope you been listening to me and kids joking around and remembering being silly with Daddy! For some reason lately, kids have been bringing it up more! Guess it's one of those "up" times that we can all laugh and enjoy our memories..Lord knows too many sad times! Finally get to help in the school this year! You KNOW we would've been doin' it together..hell, blowin' them up nonstop to come in and help! LOL I've been put in charge of babies classroom parties, decorating etc..AND guess what we're doin' again..parades! LOL FINALLY! Of course, I got sucked into that too! But don't really mind..you know how much we loved our parades! They still put up our decorations in the school every year! That one year was the bomb! The picture from when you pulled the float still hasn't showed up..was the last one we did..seems to have disappeared somewhere at the school! Plaque never even got put up! SMH Sure would've meant alot to us to get a copy! We put so much work into the float that year..especially you! Everyone was just amazed at how you were like a little kid decorating then pulling it! That was the best year..you seriously got into and had fun!! Wonder if the old guy who used to save us a spot on his stoop is still there! He was so nice to us! Gotta get some rest..much to do before party! Love you much! See you in my dreams....love those visits! Leaves me feeling quite comforted...then alone and sad..but the happiness at seeing you for even that short time is well worth it! Muah! XOXOXOXOXOXO Always and Forever!

Gotta help baby at school with party, get costume together...highly doubt Meek will even let me put gory makeup on him this year..just gonna be me and baby soon! So hard to go through every day, even worse with the holidays! We got creative with the makeup..wore out with costumes, decided to try something different now that they are getting little older! Did zipper face last year with bloody gashes! Came out so good everyone kept asking if baby was ok! LOL Hopefully I can get all the stuff together to do it up good for her and Meek if he wants. Know if you were here, would be doin' you too! LOL Hell we'd probably be arguing over who was gonna do what with the gory effects! smh Too much alike! Gotta go...baby's teacher is killin us with an overabundance of homework and worksheets..gonna haveta talk to principal...she/we barely get any kind of relaxation even on the weekends! Muah! “ Daddy In this moment of time I wish I can just cry to you again & just sit down and have another long talk. I really need your encouragement and Advice , I need your listening ear. Since you been gone things haven't been the same at least when you was here I seen some of the family but since you been gone I haven't seen NONE. Where did there long 3 years go daddy ? I did what you always wanted me to do I attend college now I even graduated high school I still can't believe you gone. Sometimes I wish heaven had visiting hours because I'll be there everyday I'll give anything to have my best man back sometimes I think this is unfair because its HARD NOT HAVING YOU HERE BUT I KNOW YOU LOOKING DOWN SMILING ON ME ... slipped away into the next room. Nothing has happened. Everything remains exactly as it was. I am I, and you are you, and the old life that we lived so fondly together is unscathed, unchanged. Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by the old familiar name. Speak of me in the easy way which you always used. Put no difference into your tone. Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes that we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be ever the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without an effort, without the gloss of a shadow upon it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was. There is absolute and unshakable continuity. What is the death but a negligible accident? Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near; but mind the moment. All is well.

“ People may read this and think I'm crazy...but I can't help myself! For most, life goes on without too much thought given to you..occasional one here and there! But for me and the kids..it's EVERY day! Yes, we will go on, know you wouldn't want anything but for us to be happy, but you weren't someone we seen once a year..you were part of us, every day, every year for many years!! I have had different reactions from people, and I am shocked at how people can behave as if you were NOT in OUR lives!!! Seriously disturbing that many, who only seen you here and there, can look at us and say "Thank You for remembering"!!!! It is me, us, who say "Thank You"!!! We were the ones you were with year after year! Besides the other kids, who yes, have all the same rights to feel how they feel, although we had our problems, never looked at them any different than my kids, never will! I pray for those who feel guilty that they did not be a part of your life when you were here, so much that they misconstrue what truly was, is!!! I do seriously pray for their peace...we ALL make mistakes in life...forgiveness from our Father is always available if you truly believe in Him. I do NOT wish any harm or ill things towards anyone, but I have reached my limit with being treated less than what we were!!! YES, we had our problems, yes, I regret many things, but it is a two way street, and had some been closer to us, they would know, all was not what it appeared! Love was never lacking!! I spent years, supporting you, slept, ate, spoke, dreamed, played..loving you!! Loving your family, loving ALL of our children! Nobody else can say this!!! You are the ONLY father Meek will ever know..he wasn't even a year old!!! He only has you, along with all of the emotions of losing you! You two spent more time together, than probably anyone, because I was often gone working! You were his whole world for many years!!! All of our children suffered for the shortcomings of adults! One generation affects another, affects another..and so on, and so on...Our Father does not like cruelty towards one another, and even worse, towards children! We are only capable of reacting the way we know..mistakes are just that, mistakes, they are forgiven! Bad decisions..forgiven! Faith is an amazing thing!! These things are done by one who does not understand what they are doing..but intentional harm..although ALL is forgiven, I feel a person WILL have to make amends with our Father! I pray and beg for all to be mindful of your ways! I see Our Father working in ALL of the kids lives..blessing each and every one of them! He does not wish for us to hurt, have pain...only peace and happiness! We cannot help but feel the loss, have pain, but through His blessings, we will be alright until we see each other again! I had to get all of this off my chest..has been bottled up too long! Even tho, with every season, every day, every milestone that comes and goes, a piece of us is missing, know, I am working overtime to keep peace and happiness flowing to our children! ALL of them! God knows..that's all we ever have wanted for all of the kids! Unfortunately, we are human, not perfect! I love you Tracy, feel the loneliness, emptiness from you not being here..but you will ALWAYS live with us through our memories! We are ever so grateful to have those to talk about, look at pictures, videos, and share! We didn't realize just how important those were when we were making them! God was looking out for us even then! I will continue to pray for everyone! Even those who try to harm us with their actions and words! Just not in me to wish ill on anyone! Only blessings and peace from our Father! See you in my dreams! Love you Always and Forever My Husband! Muah! XOXOXOX

“ It's these times that hurt the worst!! Baby has father/daughter dance coming up! Without a second thought, I have already started lookin' at dresses for both of us, shoes, wrote the day on the calendar..until the other night it hit me..this is going to be incredibly hard to be at!!

Can't let her miss it, but pray I do NOT cry, do NOT let my pain for my daughter or myself, seep out..pray I can keep a smile and let my babygirl have her special day! I hope that day, night, baby gets a sign to assure her, that her Daddy is with her always! We NEVER forget our Heavenly Father..but these are one of those moments she needs you!! Tears now just thinking about this day! Lastnight, baby broke down crying, hours after watching a short video on her tablet, of a little girl who passed..they were showing her best friends memories the two shared! I didn't know why she became so emotional all of a sudden..she sat fighting back tears, stumbling on her words..we had just got done reading a good story..so I really didn't understand!! I grabbed her up close to me, she finally let the tears out as she told me..focusing on "the memories..mom..the memories".. Needless to say, took everything in me to fight back tears over her pain! I told her that God has his ways, we won't always understand, but HE needed Daddy to be an angel! Then I told her, God is making sure she is protected always!! When she is at school, and mama is at home, if she needs protecting..DADDY WILL be there right at that moment..quicker than me getting in the car and driving there! This is so hard Tracy!!! Malik VERY often, sits lost..when I ask him what's wrong..he'll either tell me nothing..or if I manage to get it out of him..he'll just say.."I know you love me mom, and want to be here...just some things, I need Dad..I miss Dad.." I feel so helpless!!! I know he needs your input..even tho I keep him around positive male role models..they are not always around...they do not know him...he NEEDS DAD!!! He trusted what Dad said!!! Although he is appreciative of others input..they're NOT Dad..they can NEVER take your place! Lord help us to be ok! I pray every night that God keeps us in his arms..that HE guides us through this! “Hi, babe! Just want to tell you how much I miss your company!! Just snuggling, watching Tv together, tee heeing between ourselves over "inside" jokes! Spring is upon us now..it hits all of us so hard..definitely our BEST time all year! Watching out there spiffin' the truck up, (with no shirt on! LOL) the two of us toodling around with various spring projects to get the house and yard together! Running around to rummage sales all weekend! LOL We sure got some pretty good deals! I haven't really done that lately, might stop if I see something, but just not the same! You know how we enjoyed shopping for our "treasures"! Besides all them ladies in ByCy flirting with you! Bahahaha Me and baby often talk about and miss rubbing Daddy down with lotion! You were always so self conscious!! To me, you were the most beautiful thing to look at! Miss watching you get dressed! LOL I was always grateful to have you as mine! I remember you saying the same and taking the WORST pictures of me sleeping! Uughh.. I guess it's true beauty is in the eyes of the beholder! Even tho, we know from experience, just how beautiful you were/are!!!! I miss so much of you! Us! I know many didn't understand us, but it was just something too deep to put in words! It just was!!! I feel like part of my soul has been ripped out..is missing! But I remind myself always, of everything you said, felt, wanted, did...me and the kids use it as guidelines! Even tho, yes, you had your faults, your heart and soul has beauty that many just refused to see! If only some could've seen the true Tracy! What was behind that beautiful outer shell! The front you put on to protect yourself from being hurt! I am grateful for the times when you shared your true self with me! Although it hurt to see your deep pain over things, I know you wanted to be understood..felt..without someone judging you! I so very much wish that you had showed some of that to all of your children! They really needed to see that! Even tho, yes, I can share things with them, if they ever wanted, it will not be the same! Unfortunately life effects us all differently, we carry our baggage throughout our lives, seeming to others, not to care, to be cold hearted, and in some circumstances, we are! But usually as we age, *our barriers break down, and others are able to understand..you are not here now! So much misunderstanding and bad feelings left behind! I pray for everyone all the time! That we all receive some kind of understanding and peace! I even miss when you would drive us crazy irritating with shannigans! Silly huh?! I try my hardest to block out most of my feelings..just too painful...the smallest thing like holding hands, or just a simple look, or brush of your arm..miss them so much, and those memories hurt more than I can say! Every so often, out of the blue, I will feel these things, they just creep out of my memory! I swear you're here, that's how real it is! I believe what they say...you could very well be right here, I'm sure you are! It's too real! We will see each other again Tracy! For now, I must stay focused on taking care of these kids..I thank God for them! He surely knows what we need always! Although I know the day will come when they will live in their own homes, with their own children...for now, they are my everything! God is working miracles with us! I know you can see that! Without Him..hate to even think of what a mess I would be! He has blessed us with our children for sure! Guess I should go..do need to leave a book! LOL We WILL get to using that fire pit this summer! I know we will feel you sitting out there with us! Love you babe! Always and Forever, Your Wife! Nikki L. Payton! hee hee hee, yes, I remember! “ Sorry babe, meant to get on lastnight! You know I was busy..being day before Easter! Kids looked so nice today! Know you must've seen them before church today! Wish you were here physically, making us all laugh and stealin' candy! LOL Seems every year there is more and more candy in the dish the kids don't like! All I can say..too bad your Dad ain't here..he'd be in his glory..wouldn't even have to go stealin' candy in the middle of the night! bahahahaha Love you babe, will hit you up soon, still much to do! Muah! XOXOXOXo “ Don't know if you had a part in this or not, but CHRIS just stopped by! Me and the kids are just crazy with excitement! Just what I needed! Today was just one of them days..by the time kids got out of school just couldn't stop tears! We were already in bed..Chris..knockin' at door! We are just crazy right now! Soooo happy! Know he has many to see while here, but he promised to come back and see us again..so little time so much to fit in! Everytime someone comes by we are so excited I can't even think of what I want to say or do! Crazy at my age!!! LOL All Meek kept sayin' was that you must be here.. "Mom, you know Dad was here..Dad brought Chris here for us to see!" I have to learn to not get so excited!! It's so overwhelming that I can't even keep calm to talk! SMH So PLEASE be with us all this week, try to keep me calm so I can get good visit in! Just can't believe..God just loves us!!! This last week has been real hard on me..today it started spillin' over..then who shows up! God sure knows what we need and when we need it! I must learn to have better faith!! Shame on me! Gotta get to sleep...much to do tomorrow before he comes back! LOL Love you babe..please be around us so you can enjoy visiting with all of us! MUAH!!!! XOXOXOXOXox

Some we took just clowning around..miss your smile and laugh..our mutual silliness! As much as I hated when you covered your natural eyes with those colored contacts...yeah, bighead, you were just too handsome! LOL I swear I can hear your voice sometime! Almost gives me a heartattack! We'll see..maybe I'll get brave enough to watch a video..to hear and see you! Doubt it, one of us won't be able to take it! Even tho, most days we spoiled each other anyways! LOL You know how much the kids enjoy celebrating everyone's "special day"! Hope we are able to feel you around us! Angel number of 3's! Your turning 45, I was 45, 3 yrs. ago! Confirms God's presence with you and being around us! WOW! Thank You Jesus! I miss you everyday, Tracy! Have to be having a strong day to be able to listen to music without tears! Miss listening to the music, but it's just too hard! Might actually make an effort to organize your clothes in the closet, go through some of your things...we'll see! Still won't put you in a box outside! Guess it's just my comfort..by leaving your things where you left them! Can't see it any other way right now! Just me! Not hurting anyone so...me and the kids get some of your shirts out once in awhile and smell them! All that cologne you always put on has a better purpose now! When we're out and about, every single one of us, even the other girls, can pick up your scent anywhere! You know how we was all about our smellin' good! LOL Kids laugh at me for puttin' on before going to do yardwork! Can't help myself! Just told Meek other day, about keepin' his on! Told him, if your Dad was here, he'd tell you the same thing..he's trying to stay on it now! Hate to use your influence like that, but especially with him, haveta insert YOUR input! As long as I tell him "Your Dad"...he listens to me! Know your proud to know you DID get through to him! Hurts me so much to see him missing you so much! Feel most of the time, it's harder on him than baby! He needs your input more than ever now! So grateful for all the times you two had "your time" as Meek puts it! I keep pushing them back, along with many memories..just trying to carry on without facing the pain! I can't!! Too painful..afraid I would fall too hard and would be completely useless! Prayer..I must pray more!! When I do, it seems to get better! I know, and when I pray, I pray that all your children KNOW, you are still very much around us! Even tho that is so comforting, and we do see the different signs, it still hurts not to be able to talk to you, touch you! Both Malik and baby have said these very words to me! Which of course makes me hurt that much worse for them! I don't even know why I continue to come here! Silly huh?! The funeral home is so nice..every Christmas they send us a card! “ Well almost Halloween...hope you will be out there with us! Will miss your physical presence..all the laughs and carrying on we did while trick or treatin! The holidays, and special days when we used to clown around so much..enjoying our time together and the kids that are the hardest!! I try not to keep all of our spirits high enough to enjoy it..but we can't help but bring you with us in our conversations and memories! Especially trick or treating!! Miss you sneakin' your drinks while we were out there! lol Don't know if I'm going to decorate this year..just not feeling it! Too cold out, a lot of work to put all of the stuff out, just to turn around take back down then put the Christmas stuff out! Did the yard up real nice last year, guess I was trying to ease the pain for all of us! We'll see..maybe you could give me a little burst! I still brag about how you hooked up the Xmas lights to automatically come on! That was so amazing!! Of course it didn't last with certain neighbors!! Go figure! Miss you so much...hate having to do all of the stuff by myself! We always worked so good together on decorating! Inside and out!! Have to ask the kids for input, but they don't understand all, so then I get frustrated because just don't have the patience to try to explain and do the work at the same time! Just been feeling real drained of everything! Emotion, energy, strength! Got to get myself together...just times don't feel like being happy, but know I have to so the kids can keep functioning well! Funny how God makes sure we have don't fall..kids keep me going!! Hopefully next message I will be back together! I actually thought about looking at pics..haven't yet, but maybe next year! So much that we shared..it's the unspoken that is missed so much! Can't say I miss you enough! Love you my husband for life! Muah! XOXOXO

“ Panicked when page didn't load right away!! They are too sweet to leave this page up!! It's a serious life line for me! My heart is extremely heavy this time of the year..more than other "special" times!! Try to block out all the bad and stay focused on the beautiful and positive memories we are so blessed with! Try my hardest to hide the many, endless tears from the kids and everyone else...it's not something that can be controlled! Pressure valve for the heart! One day, I'm sure, I will be able to go through your things, maybe even move them from the closets, and drawers! Can't see the tears ever stopping tho! We all know and see the signs that you are still around us..doesn't stop the pain, but it definitely helps!! I pray ALL that love you will KNOW that you are very much around them as well! On a good note, some of the kids are reaching out! I thank GOD for this!! Malik more than Brazil, ONLY because she was so young, misses all the many family members from "My Dad"! That kid remembers EVERYTHING!! More than me and you!! lol From when he was 2 and 3!! Your side was all we were around on a constant, for so many years...he doesn't understand! Hell I don't understand!!! I thank you because I know you are assisting in bringing forth some peace and harmony! Only God knows what the future holds for us..pain or not, we will always make you proud! ALL of your children are moving forward with many things to be proud of! Believe God is watching over all of us! After all of the years of misunderstandings, wrongs, heartaches, etc. maybe..this is a time for healing! This is what I pray for! I know our Father does not wish for us to have pain and unhappiness... May God bless these new changes coming forward to heal everyone's wounds ...healing is long over due for everyone! “ Even tho we know how you are still very much around us, our hearts still are heavy with sorrow over the absence of your physical being! Being able to speak with you, hold you, to share hugs and kisses! Regardless of life's circumstances, I know how great your love for your children is! That was one of our GREATEST bonds..the love for our children! The similar circumstances with our children. I sat with you and held you, trying my hardest to comfort you through your pain and tears. I pray that all of your children, as they become parents and journey through life, will know in their hearts you did the best that YOU were capable of....nothing in life meant more to you, nor did you have a greater love for anything/person than your children. None of us can walk in another's shoes so completely, that we can truly judge or know, what that person is made of, what they are capable of...we only can TRULY KNOW what we, ourselves are capable of! That's why we are all individual spirits..none being the same. What I may be able to endure, how I handle things, will NOT be the same as the next person. I know, and often pray that if anything that your children will KNOW and remember of your time here, regardless everything, they were and always will be your heart and soul! One thing that can be appreciated with the circumstances, is you are able to be with each and everyone of them ALL the time! I love you so much Tracy...our time here is meant to gain knowledge..Lord knows we are going to make many mistakes, having you in our lives was NOT one of them! Happy Father's Day babe...XOXOXOXO

Many times it's out of my control..the tears just fall..burst out! For the most part keep myself and my mind so busy I can't think..I just miss you so much babe! I can't say enough how happy I am for all the memories!! Every minute we spent together, even the arguments!! I run into people who say that they very rarely seen us apart...it will never feel like it was enough! All I can do is remind others that time is a precious thing not to be taken for granted!! At the end of the day, all the silly things we waste time fussin over doesn't matter! My heart and soul will forever be yours..just like you always said...Always and Forever...we will always remain as one! Meek misses you more every day..he's going through some changes where he needs your input! He remembers every word you ever said to him about being manly (even tho some of it, yeah, you already know I'm not feeling it! lol). I see Brazil get lil jealous sometimes because he talks so much about things you two did and talked about when me and her were both left out! But I always remind her of things that were just between you and her! Funny how we used to fight over her! I know we had our problems, neither perfect, but you did good! Your words and time spent with both of them will never be forgotten..will be with them always! My twinflame..I love you with all I am, even tho many times the pain, physically hurts...I have peace in knowing we will be together again, and you are still very much a part of our daily lives! Never stop showing us..those little signs mean the world to us! Know I'm babbling..just miss what we had, words didn't even have to be spoken for us to understand each other..feel each others emotions! Laugh at how we tried to explain to others how we felt, through all that was going on, never mattered..it just "was"! Only God knows.... “ Babe, rainy day, picture day for kids...baby felt like princess, Meek looked so handsome. Baby sang in church yesterday..was so excited about singing in church! Jumped out of bed, anxious to get pretty dress on. Yes, she was beautiful! Sure you seen her and was proud. Wish you were here to snuggle like we used to like doin on these rainy days. Through all the grief, believe God has a plan for us..often feel you around us. Wish WE would've got back to the church together before things got so out of control. All the love we have.. Miss you so much but we see the signs, kids more than me. Never stop being around us..it's very comforting, specially in my dreams, you couldn't imagine..guess He does, that's why he blesses me with that lil comfort. My soul stays with you always..all I can do is testify to people in relationships that truly love someone...NOT to take for granted..not to waste time with silly arguing, thinking that you always have tomorrow to make it better. Love you Tracy. xxxxxxxxoooooo

“ As the day comes closer..hard to believe it's been this long already. You are and always will be a part of our lives. Can not even count how many times in a day, a week, one of us says.. "If Dad was here..he would ....." so very many things! Our memories make us smile when we want to cry. You were always makin us laugh about something you said, something you did, we all imitate your numerous animated gestures..we were a bunch of characters weren't we? Kids act just like us! So thankful for our time together..the memories made will be treasured forever. You left so much in us...

Miss you so very much..so overwhelming, miss so many funny things about you..things that kids wouldn't be aware of..things that only a husband and wife share. We thought so alike, most would not find the same things funny, interesting, irritating, enjoyable etc. It's a bond that only that one person, who you match so perfectly with, could understand..love you babe...we were a perfect fit for each other! Every relationship has ups and downs, we were together long enough, went through so much, we understood each other, add age wearing us down, we were coming to that place we always said we wanted to be ... My soul will never stop hurting til we are together again. We can feel you around us, would love to be able to hug you..that's what baby says when she gets overwhelmed. We keep you in our conversations..talking about things you would be saying and doing..helps us tremendously! Know your laughing with us when we talk about how you would be talkin smack about something, or pulling a joke on one of us. Miss your silliness. Malik is so very proud when he finds someone to play chess with..cuz that was something that you all did..well something you did with all your kids. He promises to finish teaching Brazil. Even other girls have broke down..you just made life so much more fun and interesting! You always had some good info to tell us..stuff only you and Poppy knew about! Know he really misses those conversations..you two were like little kids with your eyes all lit up talking about stuff....the rest of us would be bored..give anything to hear those conversations now! “Baby lost another front tooth!! Both of her top front teeth are out..she has a giant hole there..she set her tooth up by Daddy (spot we set up with picture, kids have so many things up by you I'm gonna haveta make it larger). She is doing so very good in school; know your watching her..she's an excellent reader. We're all havin hard time doin summer stuff..at one time or another during the day, end of the day, memories are so strong..we miss you so much. I finally washed the car! Mama helped me scrub it down..I will try to keep it cleaner..heard you were upset by it being so dirty...that was your thing..don't know how to use half of the cleaning stuff you have for the rims (guess don't matter, not the real nice rims). Malik has been missing the things you two always did, sneakin off getting goodies, tracks, talks...he's been prayin a lot, know you can hear him, please try your hardest to be close to the kids..they're hurting so much Tracy..not that I'm not..I know your with us, just harder for them..mama tears up everytime she hears someone say "Daddy"..specially if it's another little girl. Been listening to "our" music..mama listens with me..we're both thinkin of you..it's our little thing we do. Mother's Day is tomorrow..will miss your "breakfast in bed"...love you Tracy..tryin to keep everything goin without breakin down in front of kids..can't help it sometimes...seems like bad dream...waitin to see you...watch over us..stay with us..I swear I can feel you so many times..I know you are around all of your children, Tracy... know how much you loved them all..regardless of circumstances, I believe they know how much you loved them all..I know these two do..I make sure of it everyday! “ When we lose something that is precious to us, we are left with a feeling of sadness. Whether it is a precious friend or even a treasured object, the loss can be hard to bear. It is as if a part of you has gone missing. Throughout our life we amass collections of friends and treasured possessions. Having close relationships help us feel as if we are not alone in the world. When we lose someone or something that is precious to us, we may realize that there is a certain loneliness that can never be filled. Ultimately the condition of life is one of being alone before.

“ Me again babe..I am so very thankful that you got the "message" before you left us, it's nice to know that you finally have peace. I regret that we didn't get it before, we robbed ourselves of peace and happiness, we came close many times. I promise to follow, to the best of my ability. I pray every day that I continue to make changes, that I learn from the past..which was filled with so much destruction and pain...pain that has now put us in the present. What I do now, for me and our children will ensure our future..with God, with you, with peace and happiness. We Love You with all our souls..We WILL be with you again! I make this promise to God first, you, me and the kids second. I pray that all get the "message" as I know you wish only good and the same peace and happiness for all whom you love and love you. “ Another holiday without you here..home. So much candy that wouldn't be here...tried not buying stuff I know you would eat..didn't make your dish up..kids put candy up in the jar anyway..nowhere else to put it! You are so much apart of our everyday...I know you are here....swear at times I can still smell your late night cooking.. your steak smothered in onions...I have actually had to go look in kitchen to see if something was cookin..ask kids, who's cookin something. Just want you to know how much you are instilled in these kids.....to these kids, Dad's word is law. Malik is having such a hard time, Tracy...he misses his dad so much...everytime he's around any male, whether it be the neighbor, Poppy, (who is trying so hard to be there for Malik..just not the same), someone working on car, one of your friends who stop by....Malik has something to say bout.."My Dad did it this way, my Dad said this, my Dad showed me this, my Dad thought"...hurts so bad to hear the words come out of his mouth...you are with him 24/7! I know...when they leave or are not around..I see him with that stupid look on his face...when he realizes that "Dad" is not here anymore..Dad is not gonna tell him anything, show him anything...he's hurting so bad. Then I have to hear, watch and see all..wish to God I could take the kids pain from them. Mama is still hangin pictures up on your side of the bed...she draws special ones for Daddy or her school work, holiday pictures...I always tell her she can hang them up anywhere..she never leaves you out! You were more of an influence than you gave yourself credit for! A very good one! Know that! It's so very very hard for Mom and Poppy to come during holidays...Mom still keeps tryin to send "your" foods down....hard for us to all be together when someone so important..the life of the party...is missing! I've always held so much back but now i wish i would have told you. I'm sitting in class shaky and feeling like i'm going to break down but i'm trying to hold strong. Its a struggle for me to wake up every morning with out my daddy i need you now i swear i do , things just not the same . I'm very disappointed and mad at myself because I didn't get a chance to spend as much time with you like i was suppose to , I didn't get a chance to talk to you and have a daddy and daughter time. I cant blame nobody but myself and still to this day that blame i got inside of me will never go away. I've reached out to you but I didn't reach out strong and far enough. I caught you at the end and I wish I would have done it earlier but you became missing out my life now i feel like I fell trying to grab a hold to you. Sometimes i wish we can switch places so that everybody can smile and be happy again. Daddy please come back to me somehow just give me a sign that your here.

“ Six months have passed
I'll never forget the day
Someone came to tell me
That you'd gone away

The hurt is the same
Like an open wound
There are days
I don't utter a sound

Some days the pain is stronger
It makes me sick and weak
I can't stand this much longer
So I just sit here and weep

I've shut my private door
And let no one in Locking myself in a box
They try, but I won't give in

You were like a rock
Strong, faithful and true
What worth has my life
Now I don't have you

I was your 6th born
Daddy's little girl
I took my own path
But was still part of your world

I was not the best
Guilty of neglect
But you know daddy dearest
I had so much respect

I always loved you

*My dad, my star
Now my pain is
To worship you from afar*

*I love you now
As I did back then
I just hope... one day
I will see you again*

*I am so proud of you Brave and strong to the end
Now when asked "how are you?"
There is no need to pretend*

We all love and miss you so much, sleep well and take care of all who went before you

Forever in my heart <3

“ Miss you so very much..know that your in good hands, just can't stop the pain and crying. Our two little ones are hurting as well as all the rest..so hard to make them feel better when I'm hurting. Pray everyday that God stays with us to see us through..make us able to function..pain will always be here. As well as all our love! Your nightstand is as you left it. God be with us all! XXXOOO

“ Dad, I love you so much, all I can think of is how much I love you. I miss playing chess with you and I promise to teach Brazil to play chess. Now I don't know whose gonna take me to the tracks..even tho they blocked it off..you always found a way to get us there. It's real hard bein the man of the house..these girls are out of control. LOL Miss you havin my back. No one to share my "manly" things with...love and miss you sooo much. I hope you hear my prayers at night and come with us to my games..we know your with us..specially in the car yellin at mom about her driving. Wish you were here to give me some pointers..just give me a shove when I'm playin...miss how you managed to get me out of school with mom..I talked mom into buyin that tank with the pellets, last thing for now..I got that Mind Flex thing...so which you were here...you and me would have been goin at it! Love you Dad, Malik xxxxxxooooo

“ Dear Husband and father, I am so thankful to see people writing to you. The pain is so unbearable, babe..try so hard to block it out with all the good memories. I am so very thankful for every minute and everything we shared. Some days I do real good, have to listen to what I preach to the kids...make Daddy proud. Know you hear our prayers every night..only thing that helps kids. We talk to you all the time. I miss you so much..I know your still here, wish more than anything I could get in my cubbyhole...mama said the other day.."Daddy is helping those little kids who got shot, right mom? Cuz he's an angel now, and he loves kids." Can't put into words the feelings that passed over me...love you, babe. We all love and miss you..keep telling myself..its not forever, we will be together again....XXXXOOOO

“ If only i can go back to the day you left , and ask you to stay sometimes i wonder if you would still be here. Still be here to call me your " baby girl ". Words cant explain on how i feel i always wanted you to hang around to see me for my 18th birthday , my graduation , and to walk me down the aisle when that day come. Sometimes i get jealous when i see other girls hanging out with they fathers , and every night i stay up to watch your video . Our last picture we ever took together was Christmas Eve last year , i wish i would have took more if i knew you would have left so soon. All your grand-kids birthdays are coming up within the next 3 months and your no longer here too see . When everybody got ready and we went to the viewing of your body A'mya asked was we going to see you then everybody was like yea but you know how my niece is she constantly ask questions laugh out loud so she responded " at grandpa house ? " and i said no at a beautiful place sleeping then when we got there she and the other grand-kids knew you were now in the hands of god. The things whispered to you as you laid down resting was from my heart and i honestly forgave you for everything. Now i'm going to let you finish your resting (: love and miss you dearly my right hand

Always && forever your " BABY-GIRL "

“ As I'm attending the funeral of you Daddy, I'm in lost of words, and feelings. You was the life of the party, you knew exactly what to do and say to put a smile on your babygirl's face. I know your looking over me and want me to succeed in life, but it's blank without you. As I hurt my brother, your son Christian Payton told me "Precious they say when one is born you cry and when it's time to go we celebrate" because we know you want the best for us. We love and we miss you Daddy.

“ In Memory of my dear nephew Tracy-little did I know Labor Day would be the last time,we would see or talk to each others. My nephew Tracy always showed his Love,Caring&Kindness&Giving Unconditional in a very special way to his family & friends. I will remember Tracy for calling me different times & saying hey auntie,How you doing? Do you need me to do anything for you-give me call when you do & he would say I Love You & I say I Love you too & thanks for calling & checking on me.or when I seen him, we give each other a big warm hug & always I Love You. I loved my nephew Tracy & he will be dearly missed by me & always will have a special place in my heart. RLP

“ I will forever treasure the moments that we shared together Tracy. The intimate talks, confiding in me, choosing me as one the one's to listen to you. I never judged you, never took the time we had for granted, and tried to be what you needed me to be. You had one of the biggest heart of any person that I have ever known. I will always remember your smile, laughter, friendship, and passion for life and people. God has a divine purpose for all of us and I pray that you found and fulfilled that purpose. Thank you for saying goodbye to me, thank you for sharing what we shared, and most of all thank you for being my cousin, friend, classmate, and brother. To the family, let this moment be a constant reminder to love unconditionally and without reservation. One of our loved ones has gone, but he will never be forgotten. God Bless Y and Keep You Tracy L Payton Sr.
