

Mr. Tremere Douglas Rogers III

October 3, 1970 - February 19, 2020

Mr. Tremere Douglas Rogers III “Trigger man D”, age 49 years passed away suddenly on Wednesday, February 19, 2020 in Caro, Michigan.

Tremere was born October 3, 1970 in East Moline, Illinois to Tremere II and Vivian (Gaines) Rogers. He attended Saginaw High School. He loved rap music. Being single with no children, he devoted his time and talent to writing lyrics and he became known as, “Trigger Man D”. Years ago, he was blessed to record an album.

His sense of humor was infectious, he loved looking fresh, enjoyed wearing jogging suits and Jordan’s. He felt that he was as clean as a check once his ensemble was put together. Tremere was fun, full of life and will be missed.

To cherish his memory, Tremere is survived by his sisters, Maranda Baxter (whom he was very close to), Francine Henson and Janice Daniels; brothers, Leonard and Terry Daniels; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Tremere and Vivian Rogers II; a brother, Duane Daniels.

A private viewing will take place.

“ My baby brother. We were only 12 months apart. He was always happy and upbeat. A lyrical genius. Half of my heart is gone but I know he is in a better place. He is finally at peace. I love you forever, Maranda.
