

Mr. Trent Juan Conway

June 4, 1961 - March 29, 2017

Trent ran his last race and crossed the finish line into the gates of Heaven on Wednesday, March 29, 2017 at the age of 55 years. Trent Juan Conway was born June 4, 1961 in Saginaw, Michigan. He was the sixth child born to Lee Dell and Rosa Lee Conway.

Trent developed a relationship with Christ at a young age. Prior to leaving Saginaw, he was a member of Zion Baptist Church where he sang in the choir. He was a graduate of Buena Vista High School "Class of 1979". While in school, Trent excelled academically and was a star athlete in basketball, football and track. He was featured in the Saginaw News with his hands raised in the air as he crossed the finish line winning first place in the 440 Relay. After high school, Trent attended Grambling State University, Grambling, Louisiana before joining the United States Army and after his tour of duty in Germany he received an Honorable Discharge in 1985.

Trent also had a passion for music and a beautiful singing voice. While attending Ricker Jr. High, he named his first singing group, "The Passions" which included Nathaniel Calhoun and Rosalyn Self, they won first place in several talent shows. Trent was in several other singing groups over the years with Eddie Hunt, Leroy Houston, Lonnie Woods, Steve Canty, Jeanette Mack and Dewayne Crowell also winning first place in many talent shows.

In 1995, Trent married Sandra Dillard. They were inspired to relocate in 2006 with their four children to Houston, Texas in search of a better life for their family. He gained employment with Comcast as a Customer Support Specialist. Trent excelled in everything he aspired to do professionally and was often recognized for his hard work and dedication. He treated his co-workers and customers with love and respect whereas he received numerous commendations for providing outstanding customer service.

Mr. Conway was smart, intellectual, witty, compassionate, loyal, kind, courageous, proud, handsome, sincere, articulate, smooth, mellow, devoted and genuine. He was an avid reader with a curious nature and wasn't afraid to ask questions and voice his opinion. You could always count on stimulating conversation with Trent. He often spoke of his desire of being a college professor. Even though Trent's desire was not realized in a traditional sense, it was realized daily as many joined the virtual classrooms of Trent Conway and the Mello Spot via Facebook. Trent's posts were thought provoking, controversial and challenging as politics being one of his favorites. He was one of the few people you could count on to truly analyze situations. Trent was a brilliant man and the love and kindness he shared through Facebook will continue to influence others for the rest of their lives.

Trent leaves to cherish his memory his loving children, Stacey Moore and Edward Craige Conway both of Saginaw, MI, Briana Huntley-Oates (James), Prattville, AL, William Harris and Kenneth Dillard both of Saginaw MI; parents, Lee Dell and Rosa Lee Conway, Saginaw, MI; grandmother, Robbie VanTurner, New York, NY; two brothers, Larry (Gwenda) Conway, Saginaw, MI and Joshua Conway, Las Vegas, NV; three sisters, Leah Ann O'Daniels, Houston, TX, Vivian (Howard) Rankins, Saginaw, MI and Gigi Simmons, Bolingbrook, IL.; six nieces Stacey (Fred) Pritchett, Columbia, SC, Deidra Conway, Charlotte, NC, Tamar (Aaron) Chipp, Nashville, TN, Dr. Gigi JaNea' Simmons, Bolingbrook, IL, Alexis Rankins and Leah L. “ To The Conway Family : I am so very sorry for your loss. Trent was a name that was spoken in our home every day from child hood to the famous Buena Vista High School Class of 1979, by my son Rod. During those years, mothers could speak up, reach out, talk with, settle arguments and love all of our children. I feel blessed to have had the opportunity to have Trent J. Conway in my bouquet of memories. May the love of God, your family and friends comfort and strengthen you in the days ahead.

“ My fondest memories of you Uncle Trent were on Bewick Street. I was a happy little girl who constantly bugged you to let me read my Dick and Jane books to you and Aunt Gigi! You made us peanut butter and jelly sandwiches on Wonder Bread and as I grew older I realized that you were indeed the King of P&J on Wonder Bread! I loved you so much. You always had my back! You snitched on me one time and I was so mad at you but of course over time I let it go because I know you were only trying to look out after my best interest! We had so many memories on Bewick Street and I will cherish those and you in my heart until eternity comes for me! My last and latest memory is a voice mail you left me through FB! Yes you were something else on FB but it is there I learned that you had many people who love and cared for you. We looked forward to seeing what you would post daily. You guys had some intense conversations but you always said it like it was. I am glad that I got to hear your voice one last time! I love you and I am happy that you are resting now free from all pain and sickness! You were the best! You niece Stacey Conway-Pritchett!!

“ Trent,
So many memories growing up and until the last time we saw each other and talked. You never complained about what was going on with you. You just live and made a difference for others. Encouraging them, lifting them, making them feel better. You will be remembered and love by so many. Trent Conway you made a different while here!!! There are not enough words to describe how much you impacted my life. From the moment we became friends you change my life. I will always cherish that God made our paths cross. Even though we were only months apart you were like big brother always looking out for me. So many time you showed me what a real friend was and am a much better person because of our friendship. Just want to say I LOVE YOU and you will live in my heart and spirit forever until we meet again.

“ Mrs. Conway.
I have to catch my breath every time I come to this. I want to say Thank You, for sharing a truly Magnificent King with us. I can't say anything that hasn't been said. I can just add to the list of memories. I remember his crooked Smile. I remember his eyes would look into your soul. I enjoyed his Wisdom. I loved his ability to speak to your Heart.
To GiGi an LeAnn thank you also for making him just alil rough around the edges, smoothed out wit his Gentleman manners. Stacy my Dear Heart you an your brother presented a Trent that was Sooooo Proud to be called Daddy. Two of his Greatest accomplishments...
I'm glad to be able to call him my Friend.
I refuse to say good bye. So I just say see you later. Tell Eddie I said Hi...

“ Wait. Whaaaat?!! No. No. No, nah! This is unbelievable! Surreal. Awww, Tee. Lord, HM!

Trent, My Fellow-Vet Friend: I am going to miss the random texts and phone calls and especially the great, intellectually-stimulating convo you and I engaged in. You will surely be missed in TTM as well, particularly during an all-night Jam Session, that we four(KAM; RAB; You; Me) Funk-a-teers would spontaneously indulge. I am in utter shock about your transition! I pray your soul is at peace and your spirit is now in the presence of The Lord. Will miss you. I promise to cherish the happy moments. I will relish every single one. 'Til we meet again: Rest up, My Brotha. #GBNF

“ Trent and I go back as Ms. Murphy's class at nursery school. We used to spend the weekends over each others house and eat pizza when we were kids. He took it hard when his brother Eddie died, but the fellas his back. (You know who you are). Ironically, he dies on my fathers birthday (R.I.P Dad) so Trent's death makes this even a rougher day but definitely a day I will never forget. My prayers to the family and God Bless.
