“ Damn, I can't beleive this one. I know I don't suposed to question God, but why they take my brother? Everything happen for a reason I know, but man, this one just don't seem real. Deep down inside you are my brother, and blood could not make us any closer. I love you just like a big brother and I know you love me just like your litttle brother. Its not going to be the same w/o you Buck. I know everytime I see you, I can look foward to you saying or doing something stupid that will have me laughing all day. Since we were younger, you have always looked out for no matter what. I know if I needed anything, I could count on you w/o a problem and I want to thank you for that. Everything I remember about you is funny and crazy. Im going to miss those days. Late night you calling my phone talking about open the door at 4:00 in the morning, or knocking on my window scaring me trying to get in. I remember when you first taught me how to shoot dice and you cheated me out of all my money then you went home, when Edd found out, he was mad and then you gave me my money back. you straight played me. (lol) We done had so much fun together and now that you are gone, those days are gone. I remember when I first started going to the High and Baby use to take us to school every morning, you use to always be late, but you made sure that I got in class. Bro remember when we got in that accident on Douglass st. It was fun before we crashed, but when we did crash, you was mad as hell, but after you gave that lady like $300, you go say " she probably didn't have insurance either," that was funny as hell. Bro it's to many things I can't list right now, but I wont you to know, you will be truly Loved and missed so, so, so, much. R.I.P Troy West a.k.a Bucky or 10-A-Key... Your little brother Andre

“ Nowdays it seems like everything is just happening so fast and we wonder why? but what we dont realize is that everything that happens, it happens for a reason and we don't know what the reason is, all we know is that everything that goes on and is going on, God already knows....and for that reason we cant question God why? or how? Everybody has their time and that night marked the time for Bucky. No we didn't expect it or approve of it but yea it's true, it happened. But what we do know is that Bucky served his time and played his role on this earth long and well enough. And now it is time for him to go back home and be with our heavenly Father. There's nothing we could've done less, more, or better, to keep him here longer. When God says "Come on child your work here is done" it is time for him to go. So at this time may we let our son, brother, uncle, cousin, grandson, and beloved friend rest in peace!!! And May we not soak our self in tears of pain but let our tears be tears of joy! Each and every one of us can think of this incident as a trajedy and cry for hours, but why? when we all have vivid memories of Bucky that'll have us laughing even longer!!! I can remember Bucky as a funny, loving, and kool person to be around and I'm sure that's what all of us remember him by. Everytime I would be around Bucky he always had something funny to say. I never saw him down and upset about something. He was always the type of person to put u back on your feet when you were down and for all these memories, Bucky will be truly missed! As he rest in peace. my heart is with the family and Stasia. He's in a much better place now, the reason I know is because God told me so!! I will continue to stay strong because that's what Bucky would want for all of us 2: the family: His presence is not with us but his soul is with the Lord, to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord: You're in my prayers, be strong and let go of this stress. Let God take over and do his job, trust in the Lord, he'll take care of the rest
☺☺☺ ~Much Luv 2 U All~

“Wow...I didn't think I'd be writing one of these for you, Bucky. At least not this soon. A parent should never have to bury their child, but the lord never makes mistakes, and he also never gives us anymore than what we can handle. We all know that you're not REALLY gone, you're alive in our memories as well as in our hearts, and as long as we keep you there, you'll never really die. I remember those days where you'd say to me "Hey Pig, I seen you on SETV yesterday doing this..." and you'd spend the next 5 or so minutes hopping, running, and twirling around me. Everytime I was around you, you kept me laughing, and I'll miss that. It's not gonna be the same without you, please believe that, but we'll keep moving foward, one, because we have to, and two, because I'm sure that's what you would have wanted. So here's my thanks to you, Troy Donta West, for coming into my life. There are very few people in this world like you, so I'm honored to have known you.

“ I just want to say that its a shame that we had to loose another young man in our family. On this same dreaded day Jan 6th eight years later. Lord I just ask that you help our family stay strong. Watch over us and keep us safe in your arms. We need you Lord. I pray to understand that u never make a mistake this too was some how in your plan. Lord, watch over us all but especially put your arms around my aunt Tammy, Tinisha, Lil Rick & Tyrone. They need you God. It is so hard to say goodbye, you can NEVER prepare yourself for something like this. Tam I love you all. May God take the pain away as only he can. I am here if you need anything. Syl

“ I send my condolences in your time of bereavement and I pray your strength in the Lord. God never makes mistakes and he has a purpose and a plan for everything he does. It's up to us to OPEN the eyes of our heart to see what God is saying. He is speaking loud and clear. Be strong in the Lord and in the power of his might, and know that this too shall pass. You are victorious and you can make it because the Bible says You can do ALL things through Christ. Think on things that are lovely, just and of a good report. Keep your mind and thoughts on good things, that's where peace is. In the midst of a storm there is yet peace. I pray God covers you and your family with the blood of Jesus, and keep you in perfect peace, even in the midst of this storm.

BE ENCOURAGED, and know that God loves you and I do to.
