

Venisha LeShawne "Pooh" Manning Combs

April 11, 1972 - January 15, 2016

Beginning

Venisha LeShawne Combs was born on April 11, 1972 in Saginaw, Michigan, the daughter of Rev. Dr. Roy and 1st Lady Beatrice Manning.

Early Years

Venisha accepted Christ at an early age. It was at Freewill Baptist Church where she began to develop her Christian walk. She was an exceptional student. She attended Thomas White Elementary School, Bridgeport Jr. High, and Webber Jr. High. In 1990, Venisha graduated from Saginaw High School. After graduation, Venisha attended Michigan State University where she majored in Merchandise Management. She continued to pursue academic excellence by furthering her education and received her post Bachelors/Master's Degree in Elementary Education/Curriculum and Instruction from the University of Detroit Mercy (U of D). She matriculated to Wayne State University, where she received her Educational Specialist Degree in General Supervision & Administration. Venisha was empowered by the benefits of a great education and used her education to serve as a long-term substitute teacher, classroom teacher, and Assistant Principal in the Detroit Public School District. Her phenomenal leadership and hard work did not go unnoticed and she was promoted to serve as Assistant Principal and Principal in the Plymouth-Canton School District. Venisha used her educational expertise to improve the lives of countless students, parents, and colleagues.

Marriage

Venisha's soul mate found her in 1991 during her studies at Michigan State University. That encounter led to marital bliss, and their lifelong covenant began on July 26, 1997. She remained a devoted and caring wife. This union welcomed the birth of three amazing children: LaDale, Jarnáe, and Jai'la. Venisha taught, led and encouraged her children to love and serve the Lord, respect others, and do their personal best at all times, in every situation. She taught them the benefits of a great education. She showed them that success was not only available, but it was also achievable. She adored her children, and that adoration was reciprocated.

Service

Venisha was diligent in her spiritual growth and development. She served faithfully under the dynamic leadership of Bishop Edgar Vann at Second Ebenezer Church. Venisha was a committed believer who served in the Majestic Voices Choir. She also served as a volunteer for the College Fair Ministry.

Rest

On Friday, January 15, 2016 God called Venisha home to rest. She leaves to cherish her memory: her loving husband of 18 years, LaDale Combs, one son, LaDale Combs II, two daughters Jarnáe La'Nisha Combs, and Jai'la Monique Combs, all of Belleville, Michigan; Parents, Reverend Dr. Roy L. and First Lady Beatrice Manning, of Saginaw, Michigan; one sister, Shauntel R. “ Dear Manning and Combs Family: We know you to be a loving family. And we want you to know we have been in prayer with and for you since hearing of the death of Venisha. Words cannot express our sadness, because of your sorrow. Only the Almighty knows the why. What we know for sure is that the Lord is our Shepherd and we shall never ever have a want for another God. Cast all of your cares and hurts on the one who cares for you. Weep because you cannot help but to cry, the morning will come, and because of your shared hope in the Lord our Savior you shall see your beautiful dear one again. Sincerely K. D. and Shirley Yarber Flint, Michigan
