“ I have such fond memories of seeing my Aunt Verdia. She was truly an awesome woman. Very kind and classy. I remember her taking me to the mall to get my 1st and tennis skirt the summer of my 7th grade year. They were in style in Las Vegas, so much my mom told me no, but my Aunt made sure that I got one, to stay up on the latest trends. (smiles) I remember gathering at her house one Thanksgiving and saying how much I HATED dressing. Everyone knew I hated it but she took the time out to cut me some cranberry sauce(which I LOVED) and mixed it in my dressing and I since then, i love dressing. An innovative mind she had for children to get them to do things they didn't like to do without them even knowing that they were doing it. Not enough people left like this all-star woman. You are truly missed.

“ *To the Family,
My prayers are with you in your time of sorrow. Rejoice in knowing that Verdiana is in the presence our Lord Jesus Christ. He will swallow up death forever. The Sovereign Lord will wipe away the tears from all faces. Isaiah 25:8. Remember all the good times you had with Verdiana, and laugh about the crazy times, this will keep her in your hearts. We loved Verdiana but God loves her best. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid. John 14:27

“ TO MS. GEORGIA DIGGS and
THE FAMILY
of VERDIA M. NICKSON-PRICE:

Please know that I am thinking of you, with much love, with a full heart, and with great emotion.

However, at this time, I think it is important for you to understand that I am most grateful for the life and memories shared with all of you, and especially for the, seemingly, lifetime of memories and experiences shared, along with Verdiana, - as we all searched for our personal destinies, . . . creating lives, dreams, families, careers, and lasting relationships. I am glad to have been a participant in the life you all shared with her.

As we witness life changing, once again, I send you my love, and I encourage you to hold on to cherished memories, to shared joys, and to the promise that this, too, will pass. I pray that you faithfully trust that we will all meet again - at a "GREAT CELEBRATION" - renewed, whole, and blessed.

KEEP THIS THOUGHT IN YOUR HEARTS:

"I place this day, my life, my work, and my loved ones, in the Lord's hands. There is no harm in His hands, only Good. Therefore, whatever happens - whatever the result, I must believe - with all heart, that it is His will," and by His design, that it will all work toward GOOD, and toward the Good of His kingdom."

GOD BE WITH YOU ALL AND MAY YOU RECEIVE HIS COMFORT,

Love, ESSIE

“ To Ms. Georgia . . .
. . . and the Family of Verdia M. Nickson-Price:

There are people in our lives who will forever remain fresh and vivid in our memories; evoking special remembrances, long cherished smiles, feelings of hope, incentives to strive forward, and by being inspiring examples of help and encouragement to others. Verdia shared those gifts of love with many, but it was most evident in the relationship she shared with her mother, Ms. Georgia Diggs, and with those of us who were graciously granted the honor and privilege of knowing and sharing Ms. Georgia's wonderful "motherly love". You all gave us the opportunity to be part of a family, and apart of your lives, . . .

We thank Verdia, and all of you, for giving us such wonderful gifts; your love, your friendship, your support, and all your cheers of encouragement - as we made our way through life,. . . to our individual futures.

Ms. Georgia, you are deeply loved. It is our hope that you will find strength in knowing that others are thinking of you, and of Verdia, with heartfelt emotion and in willing support.

The joy of knowing Verdia will be a gift I will continue cherish; for as long as there is breath, hope, and love.

May God bless you all, and give you peace; the "Peace that Surpasses All Understanding." Rest assured that "God Is Still God", - that He is, right now, holding her hand, and that He will continue to hold and comfort you.

My Family and I are with you in prayer, and will be forever close in love and hope.

Always,

Woody

“ To my cousins, Lisa and Nicky,

It's true that God made us with emotion and we all know the seriousness of stifled grief. The point here is that we do not grieve as those who have no hope. Isaiah reminds us to put on the garments of praise in exchange for that spirit of heaviness. Allow emotions to have their work, but allow God to do His work and to help you not to wallow in the pain of life.

Hold your heads up and allow the Spirit of God to comfort you. Aunt Bob and all of us are praying for you.

“ I loved Aunt Verdia. She was a very sweet person. Our loss is heaven's gain. My prayers are with Nicky and Lisa and, her husband and the rest of the family.

The Bible teaches us : For we know that when this earthly tent we live in is taken down-when we die and leave these bodies-we will have a home in heaven, an eternal body made for us by God himself and not by human hands. 2 We grow weary in our present bodies, and we long for the day when we will put on our heavenly bodies like new clothing.

Verdia has her new clothes, her new mansion, and is resting from pain in the precious arms of Jesus.
