“ To, the scroggins family as you know I have so many fond memories of Ms. Scroggins. The most fondest was when Lillie and I were teenagers she would let us drive her white Bonneville once a week and tell us the rules and regulations and also give us a curfew when to be back home .

“ My best memories were at Holidays, visiting Uncle Herman and Aunt Selma. My dad would always have lengthy conversations with Aunt Vernet. The Scroggins/Perkins family are blessed to have such loving and faith filled family members. Another one takes her place amongst the great cloud of witnesses! We are one: Scroggins, Perkins, Bond, Walkers, Cohill, Williams, Scott families.
