“ My sister Vivian was a gift from God to the body of Christ. She loved her Savior and Lord with all her might. She would cut her step in church and lift the name of Jesus sometimes with tears flowing. Snookie would call me and tell often "I'm praying for you young man." She was my big sister and I'm thankful to God to have pastored my sister, what an honor. Vivian was a praying woman and come Wednesday we are going to celebrate her life the way I know would cause her to rejoice. To all who knew my sister she wasn't a sad person so let's rejoice together. Keep my family in your prayers. Thank yo everyone for your prayers and concerns.
