“ I just want to express my sincere gratitude to the woman who was bore a tribe of successful men and women. Our grandmother has been the backbone to every frontier from the beginning until her homecoming. Words cannot express what I am feeling by the loss of such a beautiful, loving, caring, gracious human being and I just want everyone to know how much she truly meant to this family. She was the reason for succeeding and will be the reason for the continuing success. During our time of mourning I just want to continue to extend our family my support, and will pray that we will continue to become cohesive and not let Mommy's departure be the only reason we see each other for the last time. TO everyone, I love you and thank you for everything. To my loving sister Shontrell, I thank you from the bottom of my heart for being there and taking those last steps with grandma. I also thank you for the courage and strength you have always shown and your all-forgiving heart. Know that she isn't suffering anymore and she is smiling on us to stay a family. Shontrell, we all love you and appreciate everything you have done.

“ Grace and peace be multiplied unto each and everyone of you. Mrs. Jones was the neighborhood mom and God knows we loved her dearly but God loved her more. She's in a better place now but her memories live on as well as her smile and all her good deeds. Be blessed family and don't let her living be in vain. The seed she sowed let it grow inside of each and everyone of us daily. God bless.

“ I truly thank God for being blessed to have the best mother on this earth. I thank God for her encouragement. She knew how to make everyone feel as though they were the most important and special person in the world. I am so glad she was able to encourage so many peoples lives, including mine. She was a woman I was proud to know and blessed to have as a mother. I would like to thank everyone who helped take care of her especially after the passing of my sister, Dot. Also I would like to thank everyone who attended and participated in her homegoing celebration for showing their love for her. To our family I love all of you and let us carry on the legacy of love and unconditional forgiveness that Mom extended graciously. Like God, Mom looked beyond our faults and saw our needs and did everything she could to help them. Family please remember, I am here for you. We need to be here for each other, many of us are gone, but there are a whole lot of us left and many big shoes of love and accomplishments to fill, lets do it together, us and God. I love you all and God bless. Also, a sincere thank you to Brownes Mortuary for going above and beyond your call of duty, special thank you to Ivan.
