“ Mr. Walter:

Although I only knew you a short time, I must say it was indeed a pleasure. I will not forget when you and I sat conversing at your residence; you are again with your friend, B. J. Essex in that "better place".

Mr. Walter, I will cherish your memory whenever I reflect upon said moment of dialogue...until we meet again.

Truly,

Ms. Joselyn K. Jordan-Ford

“ Even in these times of great loss, GOD is still good. I am convinced that on a bad day HE is still a good GOD and we must continue to worship him and give HIM all the praise. Walt, as I called him was a wonderful person and I am delighted and proud that he called me brother. He could always lift you up when you were down just by simply saying "that's all right you still gonna make it". I thank and praise GOd for touching him and allowing for Walt to be born again. So I thank GOd that he Walt is now in teh presence of GOD and has no more pain.
