“ To My Beautiful Family! We will forever keep Uncle Walter "Buddy" in our hearts and fondest memories. There are so many great things that he did as a man but it was his faith that brings the greatest joy to my heart. He's at peace now and I know he's enjoying seeing all of our lovely family angels in heaven. Unfortunately, we won't be at the funeral in the flesh but will be there in spirit. I will continue to pray for strength and comfort during this time. I love you all dearly! Hugs & Kisses. Mark, Danielle (Joiner), & Kennedy McPherson.

“ I remember a few months back speaking with cousin Walter. He has just taken some young men Jr. Laymen out to evangelize. Walter was so passionate about sharing his love for the Lord and doulwinning. He also loved depositing into you people's lives, his passion and wisdom. Train up a child in the way they should go and when they are old they will. Not depart from it. Proverbs 6:22. Walter loved to train and establish young people. Heepoi ted them to Christ and. Showed them how to share with others. He also taught them how to give and be compassionate. I'm truly going to miss Him . His beautiful Spirit and his humble ways. Truly we all have lost a great real man. Cousin Denise Walket

“ Our prayers and condolences are with the LaShore family as we celebrate the homegoing of another family member, related through blood and Jesus Christ. It was just 6 months ago, our cousin Walter reflected on our family life, all that have gone to their ultimate home with the Lord and ending comment, it's just us now cuz, just us. We will all see you one day Walter. Thank you for living the true footsteps of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ and laying a path of teaching all the true meaning of being a Christian. All is well, all is well.
