“ Wanda,

I am very sorry to hear about your mom. I know that it must be very hard for you to deal with this devastating lost.

You have always been a very intelligent young lady so I know that you will do just fine. Stay focus in school, set high goals and just know that your mom will always be smiling down on everything you do.

Stay prayed up and always call on God when you need a shoulder to cry on or someone to talk to. Hopefully I will see you in church soon.

Remember if you feel you don't have anyone, you'll always have GOD.

May blessings shine on you.
