“ I was very saddened to hear about Wendy's passing. I moved away from Saginaw when I was 13 and never was able to see her again as our paths in life took different journeys. However the time that I did have with her I will never forget. The races, the sleeping overnights, and the fun and laughter we shared. I watched the service on the internet and it was so very obvious she was loved by many. It brought back so many memories and tears. You have my deepest sympathy and you all will be in my prayers in the days moving forward. She was blessed with 3 beautiful children and I wished she could have introduced them to me. God Bless Russ, Tammy, Jennifer, (I used to babysit you) Shannon, Wendy's children and the rest of the family. May she truly rest in eternal peace.
