“ Our loss is heaven's gain. The heavenly choir must have needed a soulful lead singer and God called for Dec. Davis. There is rejoicing up above and we rejoice today because his beautiful smile, loving spirit, and gospel voice blessed us on his way to glory.

We are in prayer for the family.

“ To the Davis family (Darlene, Diane, Linda, Jr. Tameka) We were devastated when we got this news. We were in church with him the last two Sundays listening to him sing and watching him do his little dance. He told a guy at the church, "That's my niece and she loves to see me do my little dances when I sing". Uncle Pee Wee knew we would laugh like crazy. Larry said he laughed so hard he had a tear come out of his eyes. Uncle Pee Wee was always laughing and joking. He had a heart of gold, a great sense of humor, he served a Great God and he had a great praise. We will miss this great man! My condolences to his immediate family, his special friend, his siblings and the rest of his clan. Uncle Pee Wee has got his WINGS and his CROWN and he's flying high-singing with the angels- with God saying, "Well done thy good and faithful servant"
