“ I met Mickey through the Thomas family many years ago. Alberta and Josie were good friends, and I met Miss Bertha over there as well as Janice and Brenda. You all have suffered some great losses in a short time span, but God is able. He is able to carry you through these sad and difficult times. Even if you don't understand why, continue to trust and believe in God. I loved your family, and I am sorry for all of your losses. Know that others care and are praying for your strength, peace, and joy to return.

“ I knew Mickey was sick, I think he held on for Bertha. When the ambulance was there for Bertha, he told me to go on in, she would love for me to come in; that she was. They both are gone in a matter of weeks. I am becoming numb with the sting of death. I ask the Lord to sustain this family. Help them grow closer and not apart. Our families have so much love and respect for one another, it is difficult to see one another in so much sorrow and pain. May God strengthen and keep you all. Love to each of you.
