

William Parham,

March 6, 1969 - March 24, 2008

Family hour will be held at 10:30 a.m., Monday, March 31, 2008 with the funeral service commencing at 11:00 a.m. at Browne's Mortuary, 441 N. Jefferson Avenue. Pastor Eddie Benson will officiate. Friends may call at the funeral home on Sunday from 2:00 until 8:00 p.m. William Parham, Jr., beloved husband, father, brother and friend went home to be with the Lord on March 24, 2008. Our William was born March 6, 1969 in Saginaw, Michigan to William and Joyce Parham. He served in the Navy and was employed at many other jobs. William was a member of Old Town Christian Outreach Center. His hobbies included, lifting weights, spending quality time with his family and he enjoyed reading his Bible. Those who were blessed to know William will remember him as being fun loving and easygoing, always smiling and ready to give everyone a big bear hug. He was a very caring person who enjoyed life. Jr.'s playfulness, joking and his crazy loudness will be greatly missed. "My Jr., I will truly miss you. If only you knew how my heart feels! It was a one-of-a-kind a love that was taken too soon. I love you, Jr.!" He leaves to cherish his fond memory, his wife, Margaret Parham; two sons, David and Gabriel Facundo; parents, William and Joyce Parham, father and mother-in-law, Ivan and Adela Facundo; four sisters that he loved so much, Sylvia Tracy, Lavonia Parham and Chante Miller; five brothers-in-law, Juan, Jr., Joe, Jesus and Moses Facundo and Reuben Baldwin; grandparents, Charlie Parham and Lucille Allen; special cousins that he called "Sis", Felicia and Wanda Pipkins and Sylvia Warrick (Big); special friend, Adam Givens and many uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends that he loved.

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to all the family in your time of need. Now I can truly say that I know how it feels to lose someone so near and dear to your heart because I have just gone through this same thing. With the power of Prayer and the strength that God gives us my family and I made it. It wasn't easy but we did it. I want you all to know that you are and will be forever in my prayers.

“ To Neicy, Tracey, & Lavonha Parham and Family. We are so sorry to hear about the lost of your love one. None of us will never know when the Lord will call us home, but we all wish we will be ready and prepared to enter the Golden Gates of Heaven. We know it will take time for you all to recover from this sudden tragedy, but with the Grace of God you will make it through William's "life on earth" homegoing celebration.
