He was a graduate of Saginaw High School. In his early life, he was employed at General Motors, and later as a welder and general laborer at Central Warehouse until his retirement in 2006. Willie or "Buddy" as he was affectionately known enjoyed watching football, any movies, and being with his family and friends. Willie was easy going and kind to everyone he knew and loved. Willie was preceded in death by his mother, Virgie Reid; stepfather, Curtis Reid; brother, Alvin Pratt, Sr.; sister-in-law, Mary Pratt-Land; uncles, Curanzzo and Vernon Pratt; aunts, Geneva Williams and Annie Greer; a special cousin, Johnny Williams; long time friends, Earl Jones, Elwood Johnson, Jr. and many others.
