“ As-Salaam-Alaikum

I am truly blessed to have known Sis. Willie B. and family for most of my life. My mother, Sabreen (may Allah be pleased with her) and Sis. Willie B. were the best of friends, as well as sisters in Islam. Sis. Willie B. opened her home to the young sisters (in the early 60's) in the Nation of Islam and taught us to sew. So many other beautiful memories.

May Allah be pleased with her as she enters paradise.

My prayers go out to the family.

“ Death brings sorrow. Sorrow brings tears. Tears are part of the grieving process. God never tells us, "Don't cry. Don't Grieve." He says we are not to grieve as those who have no hope.
"Grace of Enouragement"-Charles Swindoll

Aunt Willie B., We are most thankful for knowing you all of our lives. You have lived a long and beautiful life and now pain and suffering are no more. We will always remember you for your beautiful smile and your loving heart. We will always love you and treasure the joy you brought with you in your visits back to Mississippi.

Great Neices-- Nikki and Tamika
